My name is Ally Rojas. I am honoured and feel blessed to represent so many clubs in the last few years. All my hard in the court definitely pays me off. I am grateful for the experience and memories. I am also really excited to tell everyone that I have been conferred with the lady athlete of the year award. I am a senior level national bronze winner. There is always some drama in the game but at the end it's worth it.

Keegan Berglund

My name is Keegan Berglund. I am grateful for all my amazing coaches and practice partners that helped me to prepare to wrestle my best. I have also participated in the US junior open championship. I gave my best in the tournament with going 4-0 with 4 falls and took home gold and also the 8 under USJOC outstanding wrestler award. Again a big thanks to my big brother brook for helping me in preparation. I also filled the 9 U dual team form last minute and now I am prepping hard for it. Hopefully I'll be able to repeat my performance there also.

Konrad
Jimenez

My name is Konrad Jimenez. I play Ibjjf in kids U-11 category. The best thing about this game is the honor it provides. In 2023, I participated in Arnold classic sports festivals. The tournament went well for me. Double gold was all that I won there. I want to be a serious challenge for my competitors on the ground. Apart from this, I also draw sketches and I am good artist.

I have been doing bjj at team ryano for 8 months. I saw a video online of a fighter doing moves I thought were amazing. The next few days my parents were looking into local bjj gyms and they luckily found team ryano donaghmede. My dream is to win elite bjj world championships in Birmingham, I've been wanting to fly over to another country to compete and when I got the news I was buzzing. I haven't had that many major challenges yet but in bjj there bound to come.

training hard for the summers season. My body is sore, that's how I do yoga and other exercise regularly. I like running outside in the sun and enjoy with my friends.

I dream is to go to worlds for Jiu Jitsu with my cousins, and to be standing on the podium. I also want to be like my uncle Nick. He is my coach.

I love playing any sports whether it be touch rugby, netball, swimming and being my cousins.

My name is Vivienne Sengphong aka Hurricane V. I'm a 7 y/o gray/white belt. I started jiu-jitsu slightly over a year ago to try something new. I quickly fell in love with my gym and everything jiu-jitsu! I love competing and managed to compete in 9 tournaments my first year. I have goals this year to participate events across the US and also start wrestling. I'm booked to travel to ADCC in Las Vegas next month and currently in post season for wrestling. I'm very excited to meet new people and take my skills to the next level! I look up to my coach Professor Charles Heller and other female athletes such as Yvone Duarte and Helena Crevar. I have dreams of becoming a black belt and running a jiu-jitsu gym when I grow up, outside of my dream of being an anesthesiologist.
