Ronnie Hampton Jr

Hi, My name is Alannah. I felt I was born with music inside me. Even my name is musical. We sing 'Ah', we sing 'La' and we sing 'Na'. I love the feeling music gives you and the impression it leaves.

When I was 7 years old at Radio City Music Hall Frankie Valli pulled me on stage and we sang together. That was when I knew I wanted to be an entertainer whether it be acting, singing or modeling. Something came over me that day and has never gone away. I was challenged many times in my life where I could have easily got lost in the dark between losing my house and all my belongings to a fire, to losing the strongest person in my life, my Dad. I chose the light and continued to keep smiling, singing and entertaining. I co-wrote and starred in a Western film called 'Judgement' and was involved in an LA fashion film that was part of the La Jolla Film Festival. I am proud of my job as a recreational therapist for adults with developmental disabilities. I love being part of programs that give them a chance to express themselves through art be it music, drawing or dancing. As I move forward I look to expand my modeling career and continue to sing and make music.
