What I want to be when I grow is a Professional QB. The team I want to play for in college are the Missouri Tigers. As for the NFL I just want to get drafted and I would beast out. That's the future though right now I have to worry about my schooling and getting a scholarship.

My name is Can Esberk and I am 10 years old, I am interested in tennis. I started this sport when I was 5.5 years old and the biggest factor in starting this sport was that my 10-year-old brother continued training in this sport at that time, I became interested in this sport by watching my brother. When I got the attention of the coaches in this sport, I had more training opportunities with my parents joining the tennis club so that I could train myself on the courts, apart from training, so I could train myself more. By the way, as I got older, I participated in tournaments at the request of my coaches. I won my first medal at the orange ball tournament at the age of 6. When the championships came one after the other, I joined the green ball tournaments as soon as I was old enough. When I won 3 championships in a row there, after the meeting my coaches held about me, it was decided to participate in the 12 year old tournaments when I was 10 years old and I will participate in these tournaments at the end of this month. My goals in tennis are different from the dreams of every tennis player, of course, first Grand Slams, but my biggest goal is to get an Olympic medal one day. While continuing my studies with great pleasure and enthusiasm, I can explain my working principle to you with the following sentence, work hard, work smart. Thank you and see you again one day.

I'm Ricardo and my goal is to be known as a Filipino - American Jiu Jitsu athlete, this is my goal because I genuinely want to represent both of my nationalities with pride and honor. Not only that I love doing this, it also enhance my skills, grit, and the ability to focus. It somehow makes me a better version of myself. For me one of the challenges that I have to face is obviously the exhausting nights It's very difficult to keep on going, there are times that I just want to rest for awhile or even stop but you just have to keep on going, because the hard work will always payoff and I'm lucky because I have a very caring and supportive family who takes good care of me. Jiu Jitsu is already a part of me that makes me a better person and for that I'm very grateful to be a Jiu Jitsu athlete.

My name is Carter D. Winder, better known on the field as lighting fast "Bam Bam" I live and die by the slogan "The sky is the limit" "You only fail if you don't apply" So Failure is not an option. My number one goal is to make the world remember my name no matter what football Jersey I have on. And to make my family proud on and off the field. Your name is all you have, honor it. I'm a Jersey kid that wants to continue the long line of great New Jersey football players. Like my pops, I'm crazy about Bergen catholic High school football team. Would be a dream come true to one day suit up for them.

I took my first steps to kick a ball at 11 months old and from then on I have always loved football, watching it, playing it and talking about it.

Age 2 I joined little kickers and enjoyed running around kicking the ball and making friends. Age 5 I started my football journey at grass roots level and quickly began to excel at ball mastery and ball manipulation. Dropping my shoulder to get past opponents became natural to me and I enjoyed working hard pushing myself in order to be the best that I could be. Fast forward a year of training I entered a tournament to which our team had only been playing together for 2 months. Having a fantastic day, scoring bangers lead to me being scouted by Birmingham City FC & Wolverhampton Wanderers FC. I began training with Wolves and other academy clubs however eventually decided that I wanted to prioritise Wolverhampton Wanderers and after 4 months of being with Wolves I was pre signed. This was one of the proudest moments of my football career so far and had put me on the path to being one step closer to my dream. This season I have scored 57 goals for my grass roots team being the highest scorer.

My dream is to be a professional footballer, and to be the best I can be. I continually work on my weaknesses and develop my strengths and understand that hard work and dedication is the key to success and becoming the best version of myself. Because better never stops!!
