My name is Ayden Mitchell & I'm 8 years old. I currently reside in Orlando, FL & play football with the 8U Orlando Outlaws. My dreams are to one day play in the NFL but if that doesn't happen, I would love to become a doctor. My goals are to continue to succeed academically & continue to work hard to become an excellent football athlete. My achievements are being ranked Class of 2032 Top 10 Defensive Lineman in the country by RNR TOP 100. Also ranked Class of 2032 #1 Defensive End in my football league Florida Elite. I'm also a 2 time Elite Talent All American Showcase Champion.. With great success comes challenges & the most important challenge I face is continuing to push myself to the limit even in times when I feel like quitting.. Football is tough but I love it!

My name is Zhyon Caldwell. I am from Camp Hill, Ala, I play 10u football in Lafayette, Ala( my mom's hometown). I recently found out I have Alopecia, it has inspired me to push harder and work extremely hard. I am #3 this year. I want to play in the NFL once I'm old enough. I've loved football since I can remember.

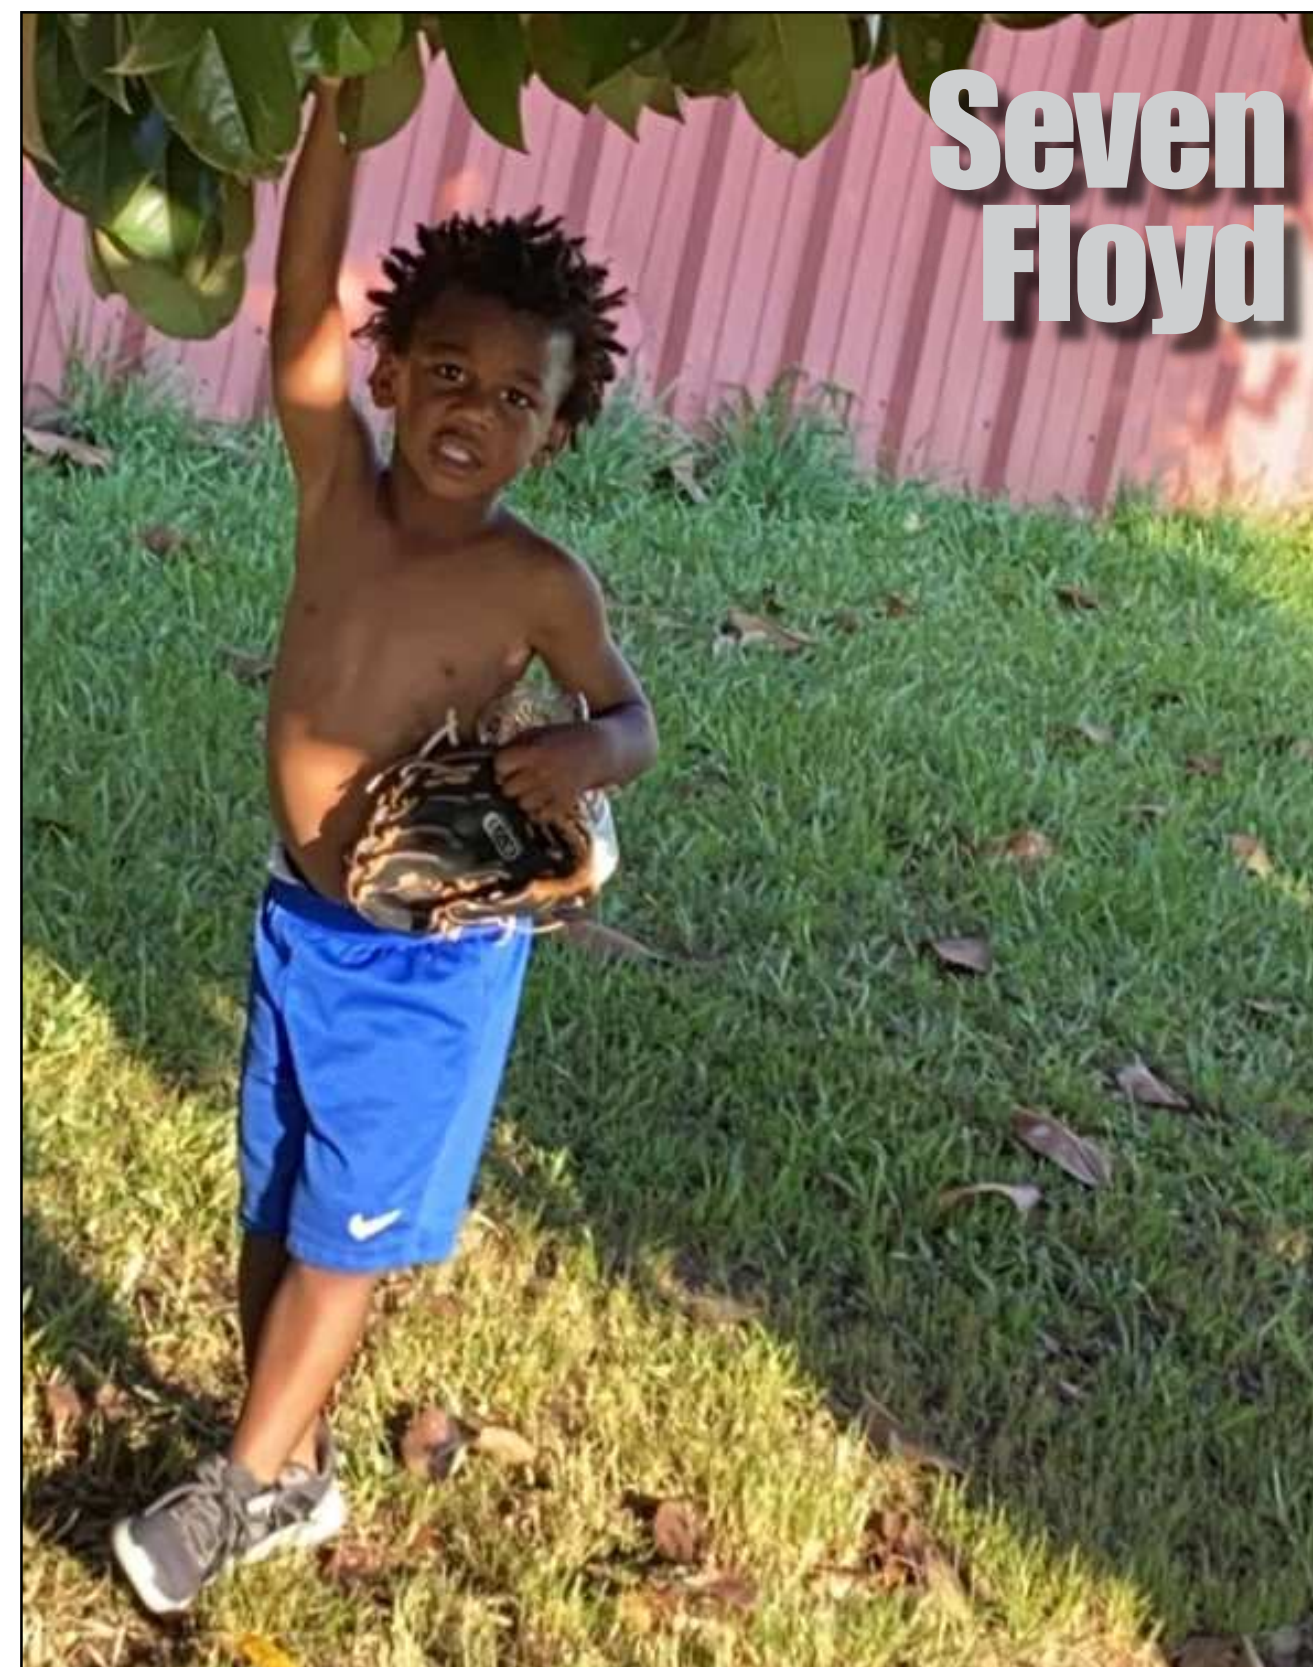

My mom is my inspiration she always lifts me up and keeps me encouraged. 2 weeks ago I was named defensive player of the week, that felt good. Me and my teammates and cousins always play our best til the clock says 0:00(win or lose). I want to grow and be the best I can be.

My name is Bautista Semin Gros, everyone knows me as "El Gringo". Since I was 3 years old he insists on playing football and at 4 I started and after a few days I knew that what I really wanted was to tackle what is not a coincidence because I come from a family of goalkeepers. At first it was in school, soon after a Baby soccer league and with only 5 years already in big clubs in Argentina. Today I train 5 days a week, 3 of which are in a high performance center and I play on Saturdays and Sundays and if it were up to me I would do it more hours because I enjoy it very much. My dream is to play in the first division like so many children in my country and the world sport of baseball and learning more and more. It's so exciting. I've been to all type of college games and National games like the Atlanta Braves and the St. Louis Cardinals. I've been to tons of showcases as well.

My goals are to excel in my academics and be a top scholar and then be the best athlete i can be and push myself more and more in everything that i do. I want to have fun, enjoy life and drop it out like Jazz Chilsom!!! I love spending time with my family and hanging out with my siblings! Family is very important to me!!

You can find me at @_7dollarbill on instagram and follow me to watch me on my journey. Remember the name because you will hear it again one day.

Hey guys! My name is Seven Floyd, aka 7dollarbill, and I'm going to tell you a little about myself.

I started playing tee ball with one of my city's local 4u park and rec teams. My first year playing, we won the 4u championship!! I was the happiest because it wasn't all giggles and smiles at first. My first practice i was so scared and timid. I froze and didn't know what to do. I felt embarrassed so after practice i asked my dad(Tyler Floyd) to practice with me at home so that at the next practice i would be better. We practiced every day and each day i gained more knowledge of the game and had the best confidence ever. I went to each practice and game a different person.

I had great form and potential so after the season i began training to prepare for the next season with the 5u coach pitch team. I met two great trainers who continued to push me to succeed and believe in myself more and more. Training with them has opened the door for me to be around the

Magazine SCOOP, Pickleball Canada, Mai 2022

Ils ont dit oui, plus de 500 fois.

Certains sont O+, d'autres AB-, Martin et Jean-Pierre sont PB+.

Martin Tousignant et Jean-Pierre de Beaumont jouent au pickleball aussi souvent qu'ils le peuvent depuis 5 ans. Vous avez peut-être vu l'un d'entre eux dans un tournoi de pickleball de la capitale nationale ou aux Championnats québécois à Trois-Rivières (argent) ou aux Championnats nationaux canadiens à Kingston (or).

Mais le Pickleball n'est pas la seule chose qu'ils avaient en commun. Depuis qu'ils ont atteint l'âge de 18-19 ans, ils donnent aussi du sang aussi souvent qu'ils le peuvent.

Ce qui les motive : la GRATITUDE.

"La conscience d'être en bonne santé s'accompagne de la responsabilité de partager ma richesse", déclare Martin Tousignant.

Ce duo PB+ a fait don de plus de 500 fois de leur plasma sanguin.

Martin avait 19 ans la première fois qu'il a donné son sang. C'était dans une clinique mobile qui s'était arrêtée dans un centre commercial de Rouyn-Noranda, sa région natale. Jean-Pierre a été invité, à 18 ans, par son père, à l'accompagner à une collecte de sang chez les Chevaliers de Colomb, Conseil # 6006. Il a vite compris que dans 25 ans, il pourrait devenir le plus jeune Canadien à atteindre 100 dons.

Martin a atteint le cap des 100 dons de sang à l'âge de 47 ans et, depuis, il a donné du plasma plus de 200 fois, pour un total de plus de 300 dons. Jean-Pierre a atteint le cap des 100 dons de sang à 44 ans et des 150 dons à 57 ans. Depuis, il a donné des plaquettes et du plasma plus de 50 fois, pour un total de plus de 200 dons.

Jean-Pierre a eu un autre rêve : un triathlon du sang, en donnant son sang sur 5 continents, dans 10 pays, pour un total de 250 fois. À ce jour, en 47 ans, il a donné son sang 213 fois sur 4 continents, dans 8 pays - le Canada et les États-Unis (Amérique du Nord), la France, l'Espagne, l'Autriche et le Portugal (Europe), le Brésil (Amérique du Sud) et la Tunisie (Afrique) - et ça se poursuit.

"Il est probable que vous ayez plus de chances de recevoir du sang de l'un de ces gars (si vous êtes malheureusement dans le besoin) que d'obtenir des points de leur part sur un terrain de pickleball, ha, ha, ha", Martin et Jean-Pierre.

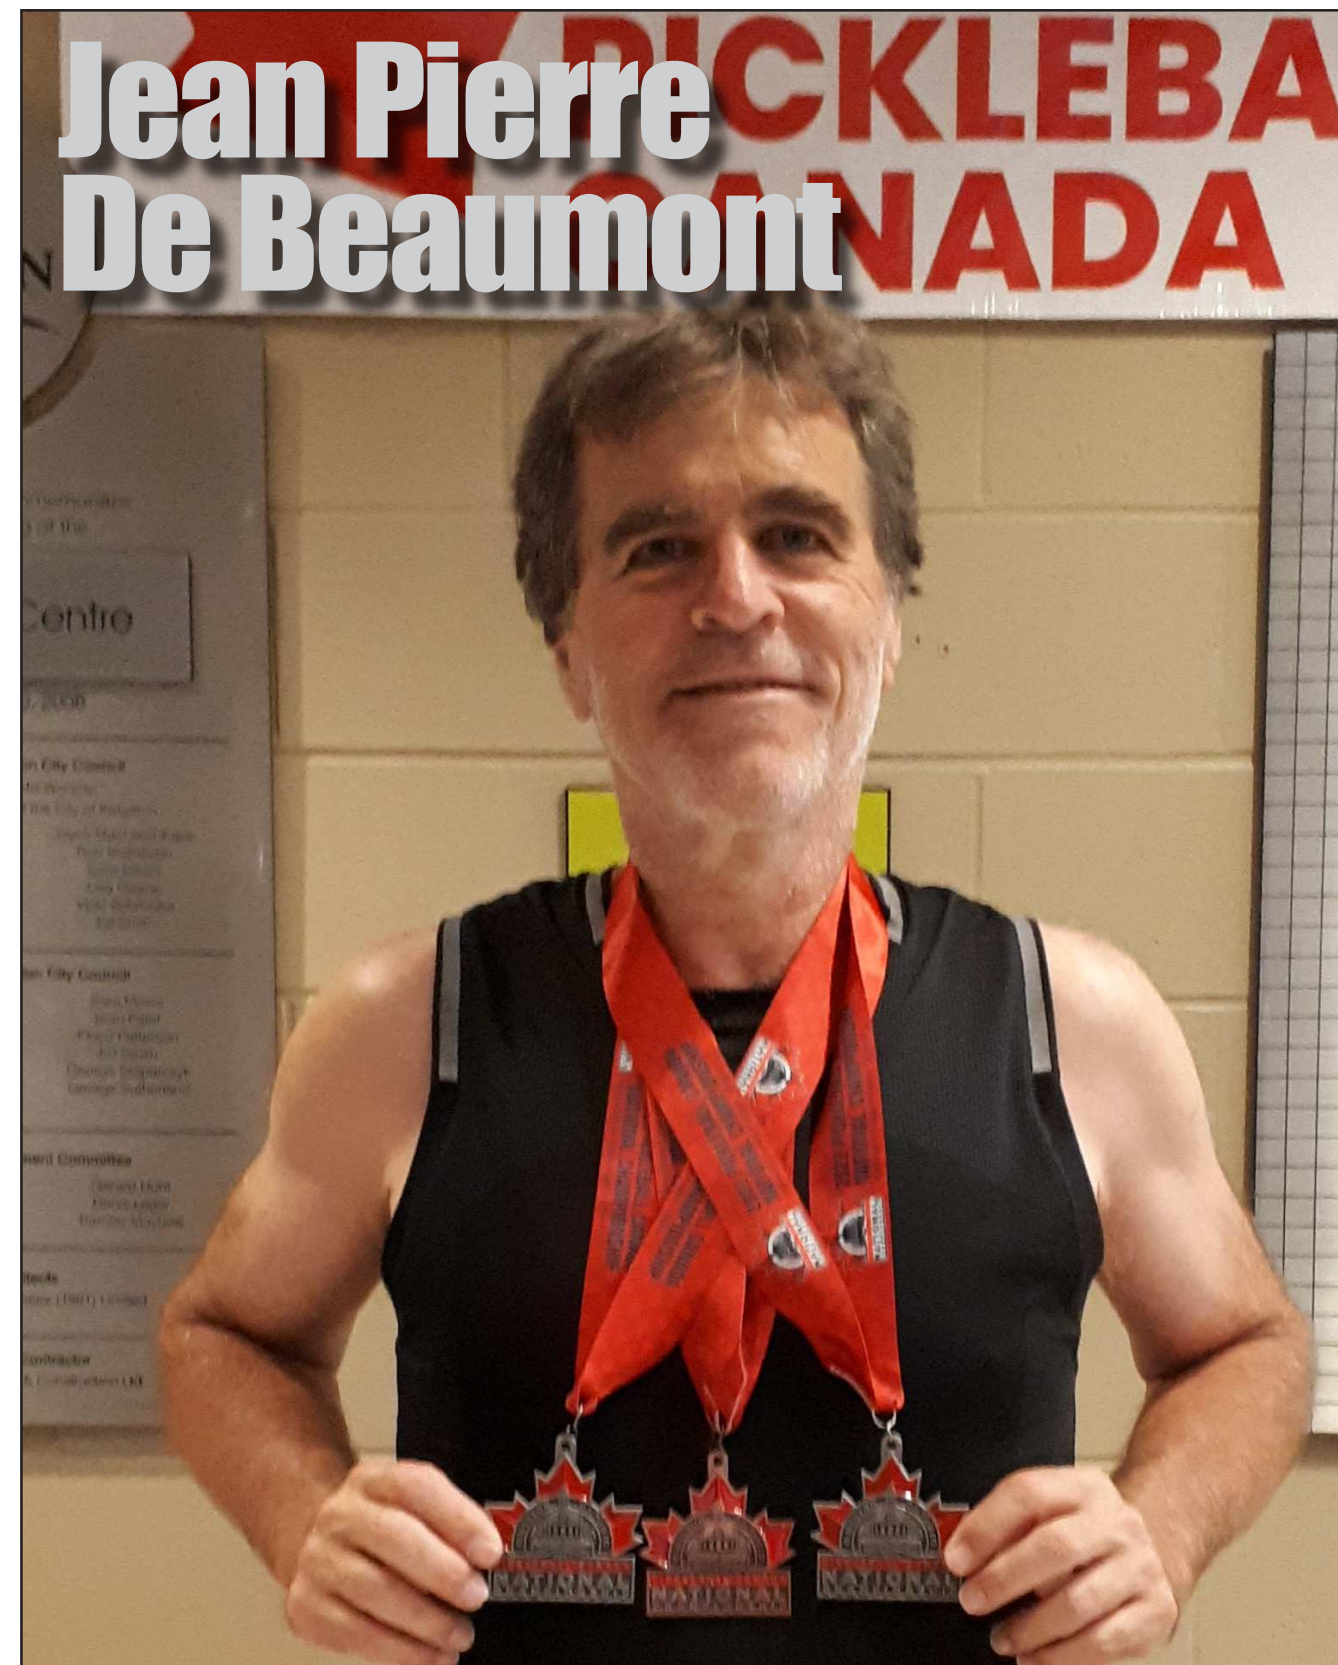

Martin et Jean-Pierre jouaient au pickleball, ainsi qu'au golf, au curling, etc., depuis quelques années avant de se rendre compte qu'ils donnaient tous deux très régulièrement du plasma.

Peut-être y a-t-il beaucoup d'autres joueurs de pickleball qui partagent cet intérêt à donner du sang, avec des personnes qu'ils connaissent sans s'en rendre compte. Pourquoi ne pas essayer, et marquer des points?

My name is Micai Green I'm 7 years old and I play football for Dawgpound (Lauderdale Lakes Vikings) 7u. My nickname is killa on the team because I'm killin the play both sides of the ball offensively and defensively. I play defensive end and running back. I'm fast and smooth. I make straight A's in school and I'm really good with math and numbers. I'm hoping to be in the NFL but on my journey I want to go to college either to University of Georgia, Auburn or LSU. Also study accounting or engineering and get a degree in one of those programs. I also enjoy playing baseball and running track. The dreams I have I'm determined in making them my reality. I have a vision on and off the field that's my secret strength :)
