In 2018 me and Sara Kate started working together. She noticed my portfolio on Model Mayhem and hit me up and asked me if she can Model my clothing line? I accepted her right away after the Model Casting that I have done. She has Modeled for me in Fashion Shows, Virtual Fashion Shows and through Photoshoots. She always make all of my outfits come alive. This month she modeled my latest swimwear with grace. So yes we have been working together for 5 years straight. The Photographer Methodical Productions always makes the photos come to life. Sara Kate is not just a Model she is also an Author. So far she has written and published 4 fiction books. They are so awesome. She is working on a 5th book. I am so proud of her. I will recommend her 100 percent.

My name is Ellie. I am 12 years old. I am a gymnast by heart but a dancer by mind. People call me butterfly as I am always energetic and ready to fly in the sky of my dreams. I want to become a famous gymnast and make my parents proud. I can do gymnasium without getting tired for hours. I found my passion in this and now I want to make it big. I have also participated in multiple state level functions and I consider this as my achievement and look forward to multiply it many times.

I'm a 43 year old Sagittarius from Texas. Modeling has been my passion for 20 years. I'm a lupus warrior and I want to inspire others that's going through a difficult situations in life. When I was first diagnosed I gave up on life and I isolated myself from the world. I couldn't look at myself in the mirror without breaking into tears. It took me 5 years to gain back my confidence. After meeting and conversating with others going through a similar situation I had a better understanding and a support system. Slowly I started back getting in front of the camera but I still wasn't happy with my appearance. I felt like modeling was a waste of time so I focused more on my health and my mental. I slowly got back behind the camera and gave it one last try. Every since then modeling has been my therapy and go to when I started feeling down. There's no greater feeling than walking on a runway hearing the crown cheer and clap for you. Now I can look at myself in the mirror without crying. I've inspired others with my story and I want to continue bringing joy and smiles to others just like me. No matter what you're going through in life, never give up and follow your dreams no matter.
