My name is Aleeah Marie. I still remember the big day when I was in the audition of rebel Athletic Audition in Dallas. Now, I am going to perform there and hence I am super excited. I am practising hard , at the same time cheered up and fully geared. Hopefully it's going to a great day. I also love to get captured. I hope to be a successful dancer in future.

My name is Arizona White! I have been doing competitive cheerleading for a couple years and I love it! I recently became a brand ambassador for Rebel Athletics and have loved being in front of the camera and promoting and raising awareness against bullying. My dreams and goals is to go farther in life with whatever I'm doing at that time! If new opportunities arise I will go as far as my dreams will let me.

I am 14 years old and I have been dancing for 9 years. I hope to continue with dance until I am 18 years old and I have to go to college. I hope to do well this competition season and improve every year. My dream is to become a teacher, whether that be in a dance studio or a classroom. I hope to always inspire younger kids when I perform. My goals this year are to perfect my splits and scorpions. I also want to improve my needle and get better at turns and spotting when I do them. My accomplishments so far are getting my 5 year trophy and having a perfect attendance for 3 years at my old studio. I am good at kicks and leaps. I love dance and I hope to inspire others to as well.

Fashion Week, September 9th, 2023. That experience has ignited a love for modeling and runway that I hope to pursue further.

Not only do I dance and model but I'm also training in Silks at Northside Gymnastics Academy.

It takes a lot of strength to maneuver yourself into tangled positions in the long fabrics but I find it to be so relaxing.

Dance has opened so many doors of opportunity for me. I will forever be grateful for the dance community and all that it offers. Dance isn't just a sport, it is a way of life.

Irie

My name is Irie, I am eight years old and I love to dance! My parents put me in dance when I was 17 months old and I never stopped dancing. I've always been a bit shy but that first time I got to perform on stage, that changed everything. I feel confident, brave and strong when I am dancing and I've learned to channel that into other areas of my life. Dance has made me a stronger person and I love it for that.

I started competing as a dancer when I was five. Being on the competition team I have made a lot of bonds with incredible dancers. I've also learned that I have to train very hard to grow in my skills as a dancer. It takes a lot of long hours and dedication to be successful. I have received awards at competitions for my dance achievements as well as recognition for being a supportive teammate, which, to me, means so much more than being awarded for my dancing. Some day I hope to be able to dance professionally, inspire young dancers and choreograph for famous artists.

In the world of dance I have also discovered modeling for dancewear brands. I currently represent two brands; Dragonwing Girl and Taytrvibe Dancewear. I'm also an ambassador for a photographer who specializes in dance photography, Russo Photography. Russo is always challenging me to push myself and discover my own creativity with modeling as a dancer.

I received the opportunity to represent the Dancewear brand, Dragonwing Girl at New York
