Adilynn Lusher

My name is Adilynn Lusher, I am 12 years old. I live in Montgomery Alabama and attend Kash Kinetics Dance Academy. I love animals, horses especially. I started dance at 3 years old. I was really shy however dance has really help me build confidence. I have now competed for the past 4 years and have done quite well. Winning a PAC ATTACK and improv awards last year. I'm working extra hard this year and would love to place Top first over all this year. Honestly my aunt/dance coach has help push me out of my comfort zone and I'm super excited about this upcoming season. My dream is to work with animals or become a teacher. I love dance and hope to dance all the way through high school. Im so excited for all the possibilities.

Antonella Amoroso

My name is Antonella Amoroso. I am a 12 year old dancer. I dance multiple styles, but favor hip hop, contemporary and jazz. My goal is to be a professional dancer when I'm older.

My name is Benny Go Go and I love to dance. My dream is to dance until I drop and my goal is to return to Las Vegas, where I once performed at the Burlesque Hall of Fame Show. I take 4 dance classes a week. I learn in dance every style from Burlesque to contemporary and I perform in couple of shows per month in many of Vancouver's most iconic venues. I dance with the top dance troupes like the Disco Squad, the Geekenders and Passion & Performance. My biggest challenge is staying in shape and learning so many different dance routines. For me dancing is the fabric of life, I love the dynamic of a group of people synchronizing their minds to the choreography, feeling the music and delivering an engaging performance that entertains a roaring audience. I also love dancing alone when no one is watching.

Hi, my name is Jordana, I started dancing at the age of three and I haven't stopped since!

This year marked my last year as a competitive dancer and, as a graduating student I had big goals for my last season of dance. Beyond the obvious of taking it all in and working smart, I wanted to win 2 National Titles, one in Canada and one in the USA.

The travel plans alone were a logistical nightmare, as the competition dates were overlapping. My studio highly encouraged me to do both. It took a lot of planning for this to be successful, not to mention the hours it took to pack.

Keep in mind I was not going to be returning home for two weeks. I had to pack 18 costumes, hairpieces, accessories, and multiple Gala dresses.

Focused and determined to attain my goals, I can proudly say with the support of my incredible family, I did it!

I was crowned America's Senior Female Dancer of the Year at the American Dance Awards (ADA) National Championships, and then Miss View Dance, Senior Title Winner at The View Dance Challenge National Championships.

We drove overnight from Providence, Rhode Island, (almost forgetting our passports in the hotel room safe), but made it safely to Deerhurst Resort in Canada, without a minute to spare. I jumped out of my family vehicle when we arrived, and was immediately taken into my first judged title class. The rest of the week was jam packed with early mornings and late nights, with no time to rest.

Looking back, it was pretty crazy, adventurous, and stressful, but it was definitely all worth it.

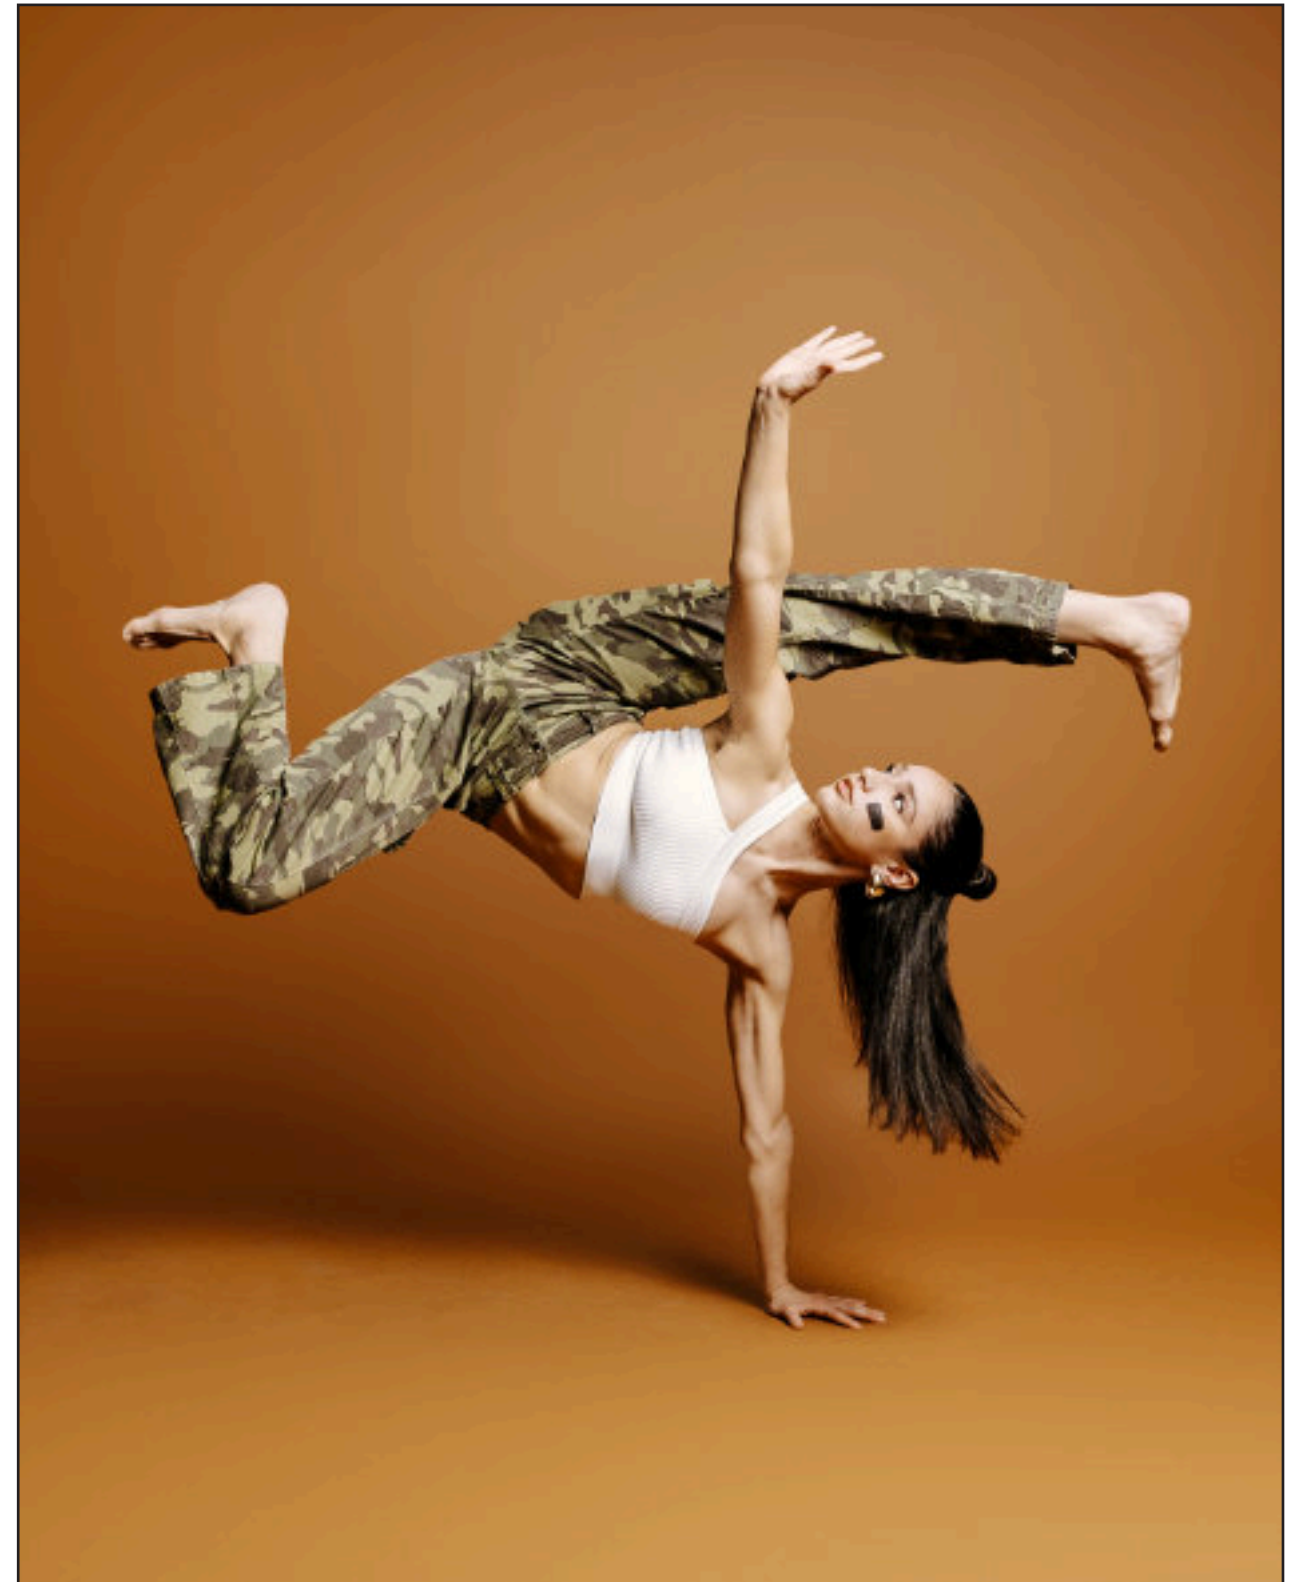

I am so thankful for the incredible people that have supported me on my journey. None of this would've been possible without them. I am so honored and grateful to be returning in 2025 to both, The American Dance Awards & The View Dance Challenge National Competitions to crown the new winners. This time however, we will have a whole extra travel day to get from one competition to the other.

A message I would like to share with all competition dancers is that, in my experience, there will be obstacles, and it will even seem impossible to achieve at times, but never give up. Take a deep breath, don't let anyone or anything stand in your way, just...

GO FOR IT!

Panorama School of Dance

Panorama School of Dance has been teaching children to dance in Surrey and Delta for over 45 years. Our first students are now coming back to us with their own children! This is an amazing sight to see, and a testament to the unique experience that these young mothers remember from their childhood.

Panorama not only teaches children how to dance but promotes personal development, poise, self-confidence, health, and fitness. Through the years we have grown from a small studio with a dozen students, taking classes in a local church, to a dance school with 2 locations including 8 studios and over 700 families.

Through this growth, the personal touch has not been lost, the students still know and love studio owner "Miss Lisa" and many life-long friendships have been made.

Our school focuses on teaching everyone to consistently act with integrity and respect for all others, encouraging continuous improvement, fostering teamwork, and creating a healthy balance between work and personal life.

Each dance class is innovatively designed to provide creative and progressive training techniques taught by highly qualified dance teachers who focus on developing artistic growth within every student.

Our ballet curriculum follows the high standards set out by the Royal Academy of Dance (RAD).

Panorama Dance excels in offering instruction in other popular performing arts such as Jazz, Lyrical, Hip Hop, Tap, Contemporary and Stage. For the more committed students, we offer the opportunity to train and compete in local dance competitions through solo, duo, or group dance numbers.

In fact, many of our students have won numerous competitions in the various dance categories.

Our school believes strongly in community involvement, frequently performing in the area at Senior Centres, local schools, and other community events. Our annual year-end production gives every student the opportunity to showcase their newly developed talent on stage in front of family and friends. Our primary goal is to build self-esteem, confidence, poise and a love of dance while encouraging teamwork, fun and possibly lasting friendships!

The staff at Panorama is interested in your child's personal development and we encourage every student to work towards giving their best effort.

Warmland Dance

At Warmland Dance, the real-world experience that instructors bring to the classroom is highly valued. Unlike many local studios where young teachers transition directly from student to instructor, Warmland's faculty boasts years of professional performance and choreography experience from around the globe. This background enables them to guide students not only in technique but also in the artistry of dance from a holistic perspective.

The goal is to share the joy, challenges, and creativity that come with a lifelong journey in dance. While the faculty holds strong credentials, they are committed to fostering a supportive and welcoming community where every dancer can explore their potential.

Warmland focuses on cultivating a sense of belonging and celebrating each dancer's unique path, blending technical growth with artistic discovery. The studio is open to dancers of all levels, providing compassionate guidance rooted in a deep love for the art of dance.

Because of the exceptional faculty, Warmland attracts adult professionals and former youth dancers seeking to continue their journeys. Many recognize that there's always more to learn and are drawn to the unique insights and artistry offered. As a result, Warmland has become the go-to studio for adult professionals to train, perform, and refine their craft.

Leah Burley's vision to create economic opportunities for professional dancers in the Cowichan Valley has been pivotal to Warmland's growth. The studio has established the valley's first-ever professional adult performance company, allowing dancers to work in the industry without solely focusing on teaching. This initiative opens doors for local professionals to continue performing and engaging with dance as a viable career, creating a vibrant community where artistry thrives for all ages. Through this company, Warmland is building a space for professionals to train and showcase their talents, enriching the region's artistic and cultural landscape.
