Founder Angela Crouch

Angie Crouch founded Barbell's Fitness in 1995,

she was only 15 years old.

Her first fitness center was located on Indrio Road in Lakewood Park, Florida.

In 1997, she expanded to a second location in the Orange Blossom Mall on Okeechobee Rd in Fort Pierce Florida.

Her dedication, motivation and eagerness to promote a healthy lifestyle lead her to create a fitness video with Bandit Equipment.

Two years after she founded Barbell's Fitness, she was killed by a drunk driver.

She was only 17 years old.

Nevertheless, her dream and legacy are still alive. We encourage Readers to support their M.A.D.D. organisation

I have always been extremely into fitness , and being the best that I can possibly be . About nine years ago , after my son , I became depressed and gave up on myself and my health . I finally decided that I wasn't going to allow my depression to rule me anymore . I decided that I was stronger then my illness , and that I could over come anything . I started to go to the gym , and eat healthy and I beat depression . I no longer have to take medicine , and I have made fitness my whole life . My goals for everyone is to show them that they can beat anything that comes their way !

My Goal is to help as many people as I can by empowering individuals to lead healthier lives and unlock their true potential, enabling them to become the best versions of themselves. Witnessing the impact that unhealthy lifestyles can have on both physical and mental well-being, I have been driven to make a difference. The desire to support and guide others in their pursuit of wellness has become an integral part of who I am. Whether through education, advocacy, or personalized coaching, I am committed to imparting knowledge, fostering healthy habits, and instilling the belief that each person possesses the power to transform their lives. Helping people embark on a journey towards optimal health and personal growth is not just a dream; it is my purpose, my calling, and the path I am determined to walk with unwavering dedication and compassion.

As a male model i have the same similar dreams that we all do and we all have different dreams as well. For me, I always wanted to do print work. It's seen a lot and to me, it's always an "in your face" moment when it happens. I've done two print modeling gigs and two commercial print gigs. It's the main reason I wanted to be a model and I truly enjoy it. I've achieved that.
