I've been in the fitness industry for 10 years. I'm a personal trainer, parkour coach, running coach, and obstacle course racing coach. I help people move pain free! However, I've done all sorts of things. My first driving passion was Obstacle Course racing. 3-18 mile races with obstacles, heavy carries, swims, etc. I even qualified for US Obstacle Course racing championships years ago, and placed 7th in my age group! Since then I've spent the past four years learning and conditioning myself for parkour. It's such a useful, fun and beautiful art with endless challenges. I believe it pushes the body and mind to it's limits while also staying grounded in natural movement. My training has never once been about building an "ideal looking physique". Appearance isn't important to me. It's my love of movement, as well as creating and completing challenges that drives me. My goal right now is to keep expanding my horizons in movement. An example of the life I strive for happened just a couple months ago. I ran 20 miles in the middle of the night on steep rocky hills with a friend who runs ultra marathons, trained parkour the next day with the parkour practitioners in my home town, then went rock climbing outdoors the day after that with a friend of mine that had the equipment for it. My body still felt great even after all of it. I was ready for more! This is the lifestyle I love. Thanks for reading. Never let your health be a chore! Find something that you're happy doing, so training will be fun!

Being a Top Model is different for some but from my group of Modelling friends and myself,we turned up and be better than yesterday,it's a reunion networking to better our modelling carrier,we get some paid jobs and we also walk for charity events giving back to the community, this is always a humbling experience,all in all,it's the passion that keeps everyone going,and as a model we unite with other Creatives to bring everything to life in the Runway.

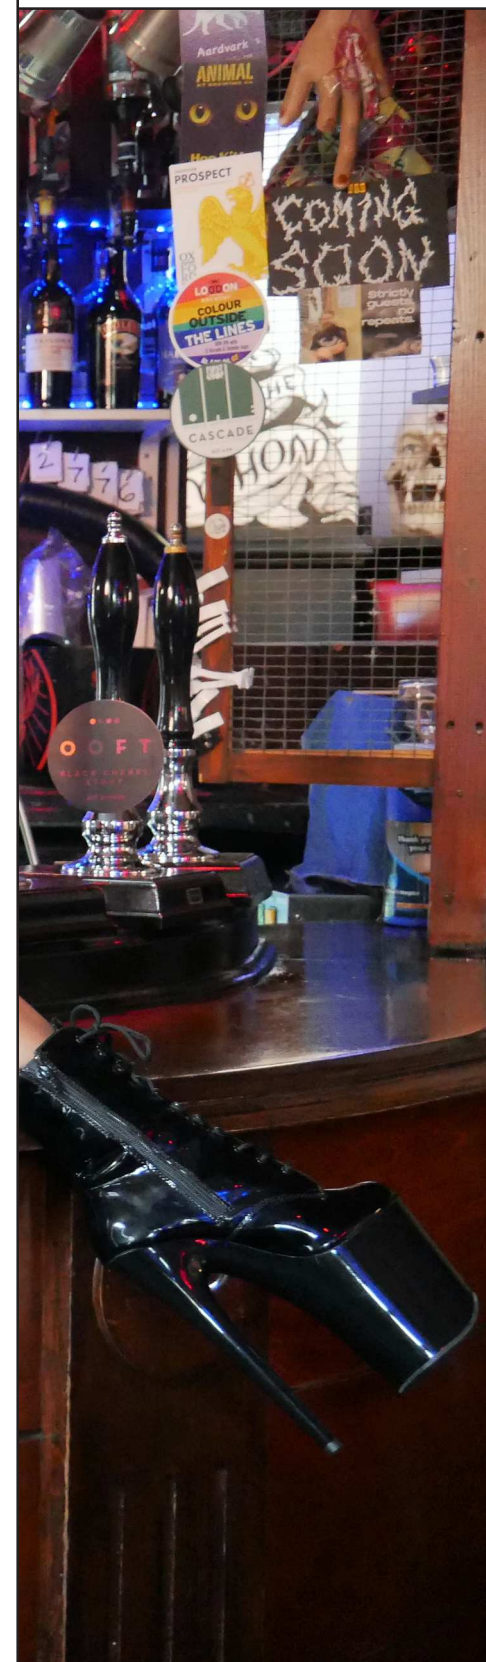

Commuting and misunderstanding can be a hinderance,but always communicate and be clear in whatever you do.

Walked for and networked with #CHABSUK #LFPW #FLAMEINTERNATIONAL #NYCFS #Toyolala #BLACKcreatives #PFRunway

I am Audrey, 12 years old and I am an aspiring ballet dancer and model. I have been dancing for over 8 years. I have learned and developed my dance skills to partake in auditions and to be featured in dance shows with previous and current dance studios. I continue to take lessons and training to improve my ballet so that in the future I may have the opportunity to land bigger roles. I am very excited to see what my future holds in ballet.

When I am not dancing, I am busy modeling. I absolutely love to put on makeup, dress up in fashionable clothes and to pose in front of cameras. Working with different photographers and models I am always learning on how to improve and develop my own style so that I may one day be featured in various model events and shows.

I am not sure what my future holds but I continue to work hard on things I love and enjoy so that I can get closer to my future goals.

Mi nombre es Caroline Ceballos quiero comenzar diciendo que una de mis metas es graduarme como enfermera, y después a largo plazo ser profesional como bailarina y a la misma ves como modelo para así tener más ingresos y poderme comprar mi casita y mi carro .Mi logro hasta el momento fue poderle comprar un juguete costoso a mi bebe pero con esfuerzo se lo compre

y poderme pagar el pase de conducción ese a Sido mi mayor logro. Debidamente todo es un proceso pero lo que me ha hecho más feliz es ser madre y que mi familia tenga salud. Eso me motiva a luchar cada ves que veo a mi hijo es mi motivación para poder lograr cada uno de mis objetivos aunque se que todo tiene su sacrificio y es una lucha continua para obtener las cosas y

Siempre llevo a Dios en mi corazón y se que el no me deja decaer aunque existe el bien y el mal y en estos tiempos es complicado luchar contra el mal pero no difcil no todas las personas son buenas hay personas que te llevan a la destrucción pero cuando sucede tienes que estar preparado y ser fuerte he aprendido a mis 21 años que hay personas que están donde quieren estar porque lo que uno se proponga lo logra que es un sacrificio pero eso se trata la vida Dios le da la batalla a sus mejores soldados .
