If a person could appreciate artist like Alicia keys, Lauren hill, Mariah Carey, sade, to name a few, you'll definitely vibe to my sound. Currently I have a single out called Confessional , which I dropped May 12th of this year . Confessional touches on the concept of things not always being as perfect as they seem. Often times , I feel like there's a certain level of empathy that people don't have for people who are "blessed" in the traditional sense. It's why people are always surprised when millionaires reveal how unhappy they truly are, even with the riches. I've even experienced it in my own life , where people think just because I make uplifting music, that I'm always uplifted. Tha is not the case, and that's ok. My goal with music is to inspire , motivate , and liberate. Currently , a video for Confessional will be premiering 9/17 at 7pm on YouTube. It will literally be a visual representation of the term "what glitters isn't always gold", and I truly can't wait to see what everyone takes from it . My dream is to go as far with this music , and modeling, and all other gifts that god has give me. That's what I'm about , living life to the fullest .

Mayas

My name is Tracey Mayas aka Slay Mayas. I'm a singer / songwriter, and part time model. I like to say I make the kind of music that raises the vibes. I'm all about growth as a human, learning about one self, living life, and I think that comes across in my music. People often ask me who would u compare myself to, and I'm always challenged because, simply I'm just doing me with this music.

My name is Sean-Ray J Williams aka Daburg. I am a 40 yr old male wheelchair model. I have been modeling for 4yrs. My dream is to make it to New York fashion week to get more exposure as a wheelchair model. My goal is to start walking again and to become a Corporate Lawyer at a firm eventually owning my own firm.

Photos Credits: First I would like to think God for this opportunity. I also would like to thank Shi Melendez for telling me about the magazine.

I am a multifaceted individual with a passion for both the world of modeling and the healthcare profession. My journey has been marked by a combination of diverse experiences, achievements, and dreams, all intertwined with a fair share of challenges.

In the world of fashion, I've been fortunate to collaborate with renowned athletic wear brands as well as women's undergarment companies and skincare brands. These partnerships have allowed me to become a face of their digital advertisements and influencer activations, showcasing their products to a wide audience.

My modeling journey began at the grassroots level, starting with local charity fashion events and promotional modeling gigs. Over the years, I transitioned into commercial modeling, working closely with local boutiques and online fashion websites. As I honed my skills and built my portfolio, I ventured into the world of fashion shows and runways, where I truly felt my passion for modeling come alive.

I've invested in my craft by participating in runway walking workshops, posing classes, and creative direction sessions, all of which have enriched my skills and broadened my horizons within the industry. While this journey has been incredibly rewarding, it hasn't been without its share of challenges.

One of the challenges I've faced is breaking through industry stereotypes. As an older model, I've had to prove that age is just a number and that beauty is timeless. Additionally, I don't fit some conventional standards of mainstream models, which has required me to find unique niches and opportunities within the modeling world.

Beyond my modeling pursuits, I am also a dedicated Nurse Anesthetist, serving the healthcare needs of my community. Balancing a demanding healthcare career with the demands of the modeling industry has been a personal challenge, but it's a testament to my determination and ability to excel in different domains.

Looking ahead, my dreams are as diverse as my experiences. I aspire to continue making my mark in the modeling world, pushing boundaries, and challenging stereotypes. I aim to inspire others, especially those who don't fit the traditional mold, to pursue their passions relentlessly.

In essence, my story is one of resilience, versatility, and a relentless pursuit of dreams, both in the world of fashion and healthcare. I am living proof that with determination, dedication, and an unwavering belief in oneself, one can overcome challenges and achieve greatness in multiple facets of life.
