PROMOTING SELF-ESTEEM & RECOGNITION

 A group of young boys in blue soccer uniforms are hugging each other on a field. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The background is a blurred outdoor setting.

My name is Asher Martinez. I am happy to share that our team has won the real cup qualifier match against team B of our club and we will be representing our club in further tournaments this year. We as a team worked really hard to earn this feat. Apart from jiu jitsu, I also like to train my muscles and keep myself fit and lean. I was also the part of team which competed in Las Vegas last year for our club. All thanks to our coach for providing us better training. Supreme Gladiator Las Vegas will be held again this year and our hopes are really high. My dream is to be a professional martial artist.

Naqunadra
Smith

My name is Naqunadra Smith, I am a wife, mother, model and business owner. To be honest with you i've never been the loud or flashy type. I've always been the girl in the back but I was comfortable with that because I let society label me and excepted that was just it for me. But don't get me wrong. I've always felt there was something special about me, and that I was put on this earth to accomplish a goal. In my modeling career I'm starting to tap into that true purpose, before I started modeling I had no self-confidence and just let people in society run my life but through modeling I found myself and I've taken back control of my life. Every time I walk a runaway I'm walking past the shame, the hurt the insecurity and I look those things in the face and tell them you can't have me. You tried to take my voice but I'm taking it back by force so those reading this just remember you are an Overcomer and there's so much power in you that you don't even realize yet But today I challenge you to tap into that power, and prove to society who you really are .

My goal is to continue to inspire women and be an example that you can live in your passion, you can be whatever you want to be and do whatever you want to do and it doesn't matter where you came from, what you have gone through or what opinion anyone has, WE are a powerful force to be reckoned with and it's time we heal and step into our element and be the woman we all need.

My name is Giavanna and I am 8 years old and an elite level 1 cheerleader. I am on team Royalty (Mini level 1) and this is my second season cheering. My biggest achievement is being placed in advanced level 2 tumbling classes. I am working on some level 3 skills and I was excited to land an aerial. My short term goal is to be a flyer next season and long term goals are to be on a level 5 or 6 cheer team and go on to cheer on the collegiate level.

My Name is Julian Novakovic but also known as "JuJu" and "Jules". My Dream is to play professional Futbol (Soccer) for a team/organization. My goal is to personally develop to become a leader and show my skills and talent and to hopefully sign a contract and play professionally in this world. My achievements have been staying in school and getting an education and surrounding myself with positive and great people and always listening and learning to get better with each passing day. I'm especially grateful to my parents and all other family members for the support and always driving me to training and games and tournaments. Some of the challenges I've endured are usually playing with much older and more aggressive players, but am learning and adjusting with each passing day. However, it keeps me motivated and wanting to grow and develop much more and always trying my best each time that I step onto the pitch. Love, Julian

Hello my name is Harlynn. I turned 11 in February, I will be starting the 6th grade this fall and I have been dancing with Perfect Pointe Productions since I was 2 1/2. Dance has been my passion since my mom put me in classes. I can remember my first time on stage and how much fun it was. Being on stage brings me so much joy. I love being up there with my team and sharing what we have worked so hard on with our audience. Recently I visited NYC with my family. I saw Wicked and Aladdin on Broadway for the first time and I just fell more in love with dance, music, and acting. My dream is to be on Broadway or a famous dancer. I really love Alex Wong. I was able to take class with him and it was so amazing. My mom and aunt were professional dancers and I definitely want to follow in their footsteps. There is nothing like the rush and adrenaline you get from performing and I love how happy it makes people and it's just something I know I want to do when I grow up. My goals are very simple. I want to train harder so that I can get better. I have been working hard this year in preparation for pointe shoes. Being in class teaches me so much, not just in dance but life in general. Some of my achievements over the years, and those I'm most proud of, is receiving the kindness award at StarQuest. It was given to me by the backstage manager. I was crowned Miss Premier Petite Imagine 2022 in Daytona at their National finals. Lastly when I was chosen to be an ambassador for New World Dance Competition. Challenges are in my everyday life, whether it's school, dance, or just in life. Some people look at challenges as discouraging, but I look at them as small bumps in the road that are there to make me better. Challenges make us better humans. They provide us with opportunities to get better, think harder and become stronger. Just like Martha Graham said "Dancers are not great because of their technique, they're great because of their passion". My passion and love for dance is what gets me through any challenges that come my way!
