Hello my name is Austin Deitke and my main goal is to inspire the world one day at a time. I'm just a regular person like everyone else. Like all of us I have a story to tell and my story isn't like most of the ones you hear everyday. But before we dive into that... I'll tell you about my dreams. I believe it's my destiny to be a world champion boxer along with many other talents. I would love to be an actor in big movies or shows, I aspire to model for a huge company one day as well. I believe these goals and dreams are at the tips of my fingers as long as I don't quit. I have already started my journey by getting on the cover of my hometowns magazine back in 2022. But getting into my life story... I have achieved and overcame many insane obstacles. I'll start off strong and tell you about the one I'm most known for. My open heart surgery that I had back in 2022. Now you might think open heart surgery is a big deal but also somewhat common, but the thing is.. my story is not about the surgery itself. My story sparked from the events prior to surgery and how I came back afterwards. Growing up, I could not keep up with my friends in sports. I would get very light-headed and out of breathe very fast due to my heart. I was too young to realize half of it was a mental battle. A couple months prior to my surgery that I didn't even know I needed, I did a challenge that was deemed impossible, but that was until I attempted it. I created this physical tribute challenge in honor of all the ones that passed away in the 9/11 tragedy. I went to my local high school track and I gave myself 12 hours to complete it. The challenge consisted of 911 push-ups, 911 sit-ups, 911 reps of jump rope, 911 body squats, 911 jumping jacks, 119 burpees, 119 box jumps, 119 leg lunges, climbed 119 flights of bleachers, and I ran 119 around the track which equals 29.75! I went without stopping and it took me from 3:00pm-3:22am. 12 hours and 22 minutes. My body was destroyed for weeks, but the impact I had on everyone will never be forgotten. This wasn't about me, it was to show everyone no matter how you were born and what hurdles you face in life... Anything is possible. A month later I decided to run 100 miles in 24 hours for Breast cancer. I raised over $1,000 for a charity in the midst of running. I ran 33 miles without stopping and I pulled every muscle and I had to go home. A few days later I came back and got up to mile 75. I failed but had pushed past my limit. I got news I needed surgery that December and I got it done in February, For weeks it was hard to get out of bed, but everyday I pushed harder and harder and next thing you know I'm back in the gym going hard. That October I got in the boxing ring and fought again and went the distance but unfortunately I did lose. This is just the beginning of my story with no end. I want to be a symbol of hope for everyone especially the youth. I am no superhero, But I'll make sure everyone knows it's possible to be one.

My designers: Salaam's Alterations, Universal Attributes.

Growing up in a challenging environment, my childhood was marked by a juxtaposition of fleeting joy and profound hardship. With limited financial resources, the dissolution of my parents' marriage created an atmosphere fraught with instability and emotional childhood trauma. As a young girl navigating these tumultuous waters, I often found myself grappling with uncertainty about my future aspirations. The struggle to find direction was compounded by the complexities of family dynamics and personal trauma, which shaped my identity in ways I could not yet comprehend. At the age of 18, life presented another formidable challenge when I was diagnosed with Cystinuria, a condition that has necessitated multiple kidney surgeries and brought daily battles with optical neuralgia and depression. However, rather than allowing these adversities to define me or hinder my pursuits, I chose to embrace resilience as a guiding principle. My journey has been one of relentless determination; despite the obstacles that have arisen, I have actively sought opportunities to express myself creatively and professionally. Modeling became a powerful outlet for self-expression, allowing me to transform my struggles into strength and confidence on the runway. Winning the People's Choice Award at the LuxeStyle Fashion Show and walking in events such as New York Fashion Week have been milestones that not only validated my hard work but also fueled my ambition to continue pursuing my modeling career with zeal. Participating in Miami Fashion Week and being featured in magazine publications have further cemented my passion for modeling, while also opening doors to a world of travel and new experiences. Simultaneously, my passion for equine massage has blossomed into a fulfilling career path. The establishment of my own equine massage business and the pursuit of becoming a certified equine surgical technician have provided me with a sense of purpose and direction. Surrounded by the unwavering support of my friends and family, I have found the strength to navigate life's challenges and celebrate its triumphs. Their encouragement and belief in my abilities have been instrumental in helping me maintain focus and drive, even during the most challenging times. With each stride forward, I am reminded that every hurdle is merely a stepping stone toward a future filled with endless possibilities and personal growth. Through every challenge, I've learned the importance of resilience and adaptability, traits that have become the cornerstone of both my personal and professional life. As I continue to balance my dual passions, I am constantly reminded that adversity is not a barrier but rather a catalyst for growth and transformation. With each new opportunity, I am inspired to push beyond my limits and redefine what is possible, embracing the journey with an open heart and a determined spirit. As I look to the future, I am excited to see where these experiences will lead me and how they will shape my journey in both the modeling world and the equine industry.

MES CONSEILS POUR METTRE EN VALEUR VOTRE PROPRIÉTÉ CET ÉTÉ!

- ✓ Aménagement soigné: Assurez-vous que la pelouse est tondue, que les mauvaises herbes dans les parterres de fleurs sont enlevées et que la façade de la maison est propre et attrayante. Un coup de peinture frais sur la porte d'entrée peut faire des merveilles.
- ✓ Faire des travaux d'entretien: Profitez de la période estivale pour régler les petits problèmes d'entretien, comme les robinets qui fuient, les ampoules grillées, les portes qui grincent, etc.
- ✓ Jouer avec la lumière naturelle: L'été, la lumière naturelle est abondante. Ouvrir les rideaux, les stores et les volets pour laisser entrer la lumière. Assurez-vous que les fenêtres sont propres pour maximiser la luminosité à l'intérieur.
- ✓ Créer une ambiance estivale: Des coussins colorés sur le patio et une table dressée pour un barbecue imaginaire dans la cour peuvent aider les acheteurs potentiels à visualiser leur vie estivale dans la maison. Ajoutez des touches décoratives comme des lanternes, des plantes en pot et des meubles d'extérieur confortables afin de rendre votre extérieur plus chaleureux et accueillant.
- ✓ Une pelouse verte: Un beau gazon peut augmenter la valeur de votre maison, assurez-vous de bien l'arroser et le fertiliser lors des canicules.
