My name is Claudio Valenzuela, I am 28 years old and I am from Chile, father of a beautiful son of 7 years old, I have currently been dedicated 100% to tattooing for a little more than 8 years, today I dedicate myself to black and white, I live from and thanks to this. My beginnings were uphill like most of us who are dedicated to this, a lot of insecurity and with little support from the environment, But that's what motivates to try to improve day by day, I started tattooing in 2013, while studying Graphic Design, the following year I retired from my studies to dedicate myself to tattooing completely, I started in a store called New Art, it was there where I had the opportunity to see this as a "job", a lifestyle and they gave me the impulse I needed, a few Of my life and growth both personally and in tattooing. I was with them for about 6/7 years. I left doing Newschool and Lettering, but along the way I was developing another vision of what I wanted to do, this accompanied by the continuous support of my classmates at that time, which led me to do what I do today. In 2016 I was lucky enough to be selected among the 16 best tattoo artists in Chile according to Ink On Sky, a ranking that, according to me, does not show all the level and talent that there is in my country but I do appreciate it, since it gives me many opportunities and good recognition from my peers. Between this period I met the boys of Vital Tattoo Studio, who gave me the opportunity to work with them, at the time it was one of the largest and most important studios in Chile, with them I had the opportunity to go out of Chile where I had the pleasure of meeting many people, among them, my other family of 23 Tattoo Shop whom I admire and have a lot of affection. Within these trips, on my last trip to Chile I was received in a very good way at the Mamba Negra tattoo Studio @mambanegra_tattoo_studio where I have met great tattoo references and I have tried to learn in the best way all the knowledge that passes through here day by day. The tattoo for me is a path of ups and downs, it ends up being part of your day to day, you grow and develop along with it and it ends up being your lifestyle Thanks to the Tattoo and you for this opportunity.

I am a small town kid from Shreveport, Louisiana — picked up a pencil just before school, and never let go. Like a lot of other artists, I started with American Trad. and really found a home in my abilities after experimenting in needle weights. From then I was pretty much addicted to Japanese Trad, and Black and grey Realism as I felt it really just emulated the pencil all over again. I do quite a bit of anime tattoos now — not sure how long the style will stick in the US, but I'm excited that art that influenced me as a child is here for me professionally as an adult.

Never would I have thought that at 28 years old, I'd be where I am today. I struggled with myself for years — my image, love for myself, setting goals to achieve.. I want you all to know that you can do whatever you set your mind to and the only thing holding you back is YOU. I am thriving and I am leaps and bounds ahead of anything I could have ever dreamed as a young adult. I can only go up from here of course, but here are a couple of things I am proud of:

I am an entrepreneur. I co-own an MMA company, ChkM8 Entertainment, in which we have a podcast called FightShow that I co-host and an organic, fair trade, specialty coffee brand called ChkM8 Specialty Roasters. I am sharing my knowledge and passion with the world.

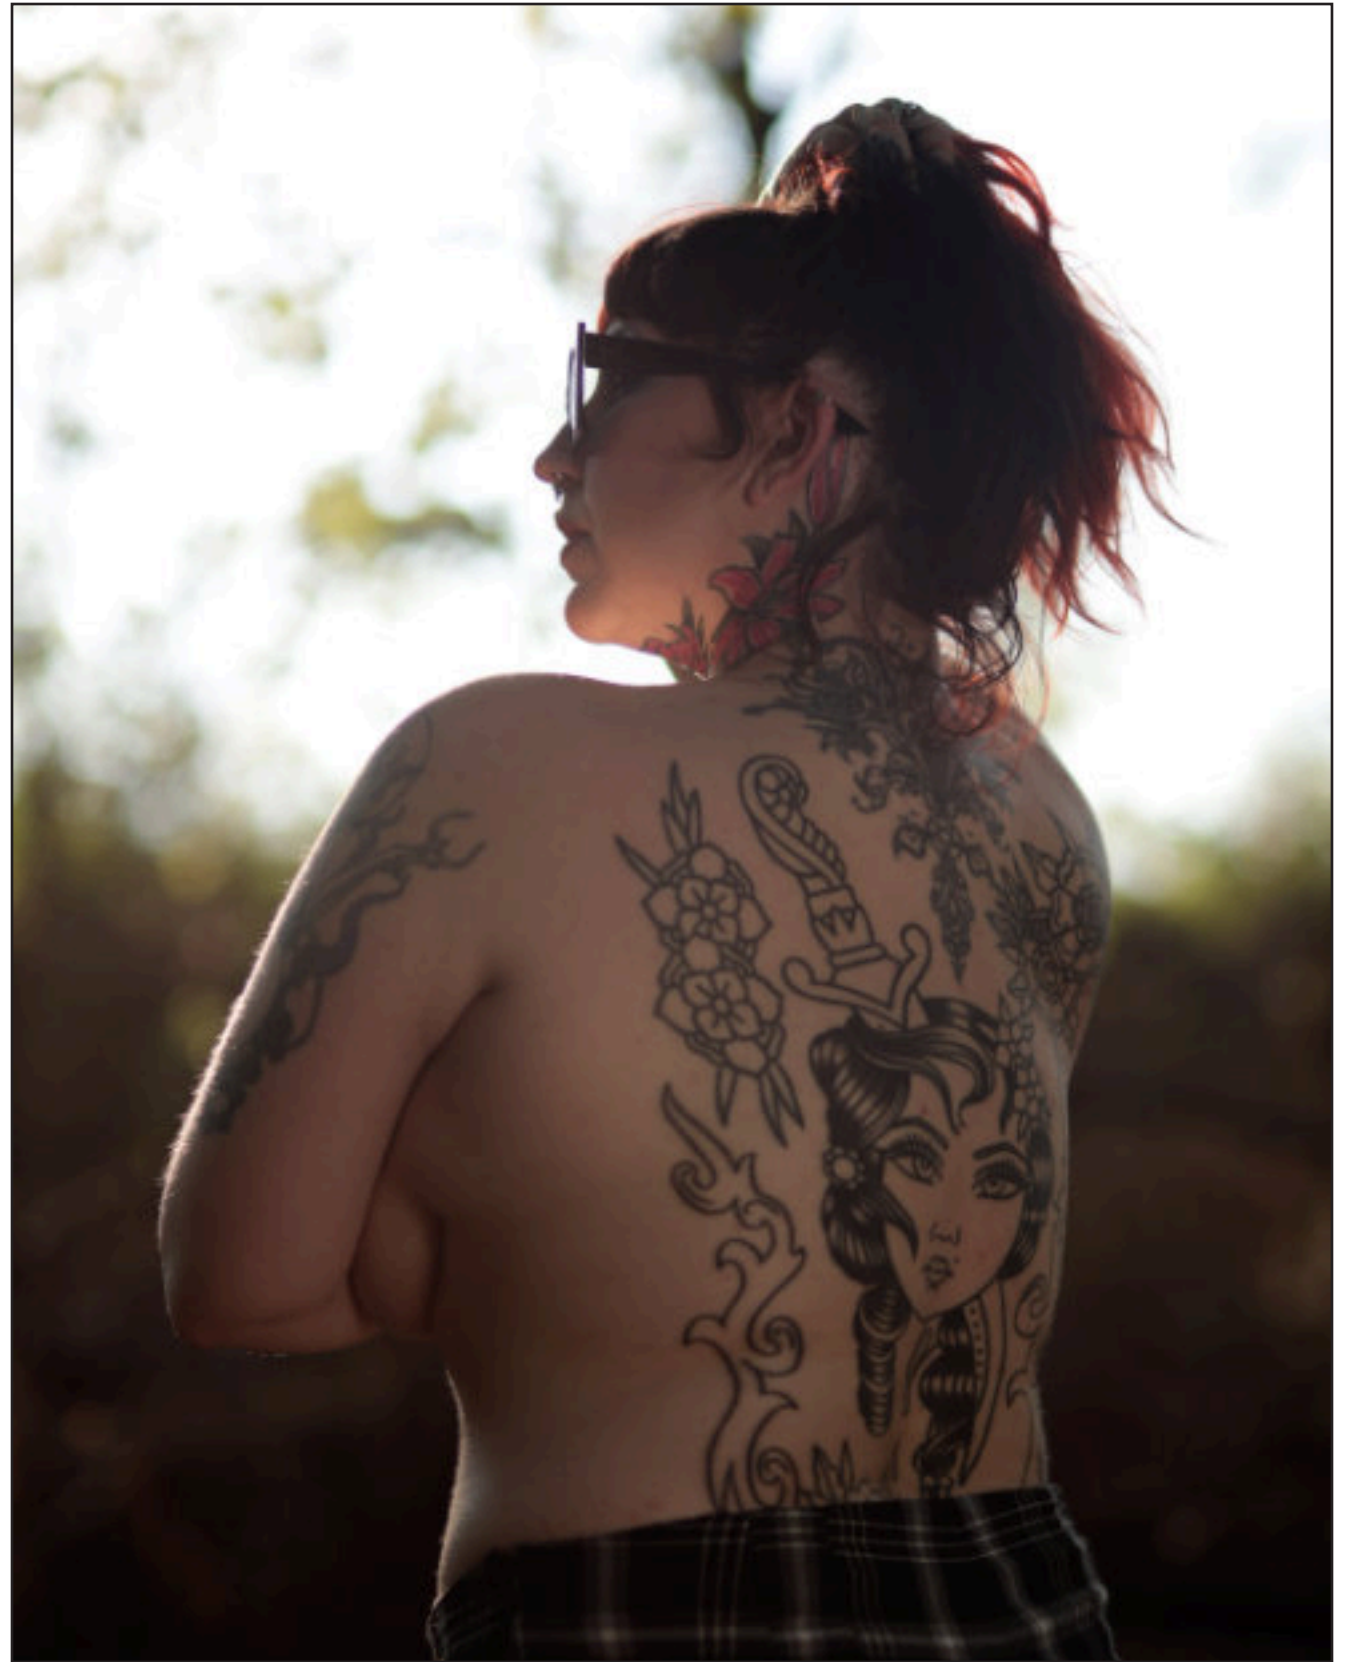

I am a model. I work with several photographers and am signed with the wonderful Jordy's Angels. I work for Playboy and also do live cam shows. I am sharing my beauty with the world.

There are many things I want to share with the world but I will start with my knowledge and beauty first. The rest is soon to come so stick around and don't count me out.
