My names Faye Delune, and I'm A Professional Model, Musician, Writer, Artist and Photographer, of over 10+ years, but I'm really just an all around creative person. I make a lot of different forms of content and art. Online Content is my main form of art tho. Honestly my dream is to just make art, and make others happy, but really, If I can spark a reaction of any kind from my art, then I've met my goal. I'm a huge nature lover, who's obsessed with all things astrology and space. so I try my best to incorporate nature and astrology into my work. But really, I just love bringing ideas, and stories to life with my art. Almost every image of either me, or my photography, I try to convey a story within it. "I'm A Blank Canvas, Give Me A Story To Tell." / "Lets Tell A Story." / "A Story Within Each Piece" Are the phrases I Use To Describe My Art. For the past 10 years, I've been studying and learning Modeling, Writing, Music, Art, and Photography at The Professional Level and really enjoying the artistic aspect of it all. In the 10+ years, as a model, musician, Writer and photographer, I have had the honor of being featured in/on countless of Magazines, Runways, Commercials, Editorials, Catalogs, Books, Websites, Social Medias, and more! I have also worked with several Brands, Companies, Businesses, Artists, Designers, Bands, and more! Throughout My Career, I Have Also Been Awarded and Published Over 5 Thousand Times! I also have gotten 50+ Degree's, Certificates, Diplomas & Certifications! Through the years, I've had the pleasure of meeting a lot of very cool, interesting, and kind people. I'm a social butterfly, so obviously this was heaven for me. People leave impacts on you, and this job of mine, regardless of if I'm the model, musician, artist, writer, or photographer, it allows me to meet lots of people, who usually leave impacts on me and vice versa.

I love making art, and love showing it off.

I hope you enjoy my work, and I welcome you to my world.

Wonderful People I bring You My Story, to inspire, to insure, and to Bring the Light and Dark to what You wouldn't normally learn. I have been studying the New and Ancient forms of Eternal Life thru Morale Living, Diet, and the cures. I'm yet recovering from My Missionary Travels where I traveled to all of the major cities at least 3 times all Nomadically with zero money to My name, after figuring out how to not need sleep with the nutrition plan I put together, walking day and night for 10 days in a row, and will be doing this again soon. The Guinness world record for time without sleep is 11 days, so I plan on beating that record in complete health and for as long as possible by consistently doing the diet plan. Not only did I not need sleep, but My period stopped for about 3 months meaning I was conserving and reserving My eggs for elongating My reproduction time. I call this "Everbringing Life". I am a 33 year old Woman, Heterosexual and I completely relate to being a Alien Animal Hybrid Fairy.

I was able to Sustain Myself on My Missionary Travels by trading healings and miracles. I am known as many Names including, but not limited to, Goddess, The Valkyrie, The Devil, Alma Antiga (Per the Salma : Psalms Bible Chapter). I am the Main Muse for Marvel and Disney with various Characters including My Life Story including Cinderella, Black Widow, Captain Marvel, Maleficent and More. I am so proud of all of the previous Saints in History including

Kiernan Kit Hinks

Saint Genevieve, Saint Germain, and Jesus also known as Eshoo.

I aspire to do full Time Modeling again, to be Performing My Finished and Published Albums, and to be a True Love Icon with Actual Eternal Life. Growing up I was always involved with Scuba Diving, Dance Classes, and Art since the age of 5. Starting in middle school I joined choir and musical theatre where I was always the villain in each performance and We ended up winning 1st place in High School where I had the Solo Female Soprano position, in the State wide Choir competition. This and My Love for Hip-Hop, Country, Jazz, Pop, and Soul Music has inspired My newly recorded albums that will begin being released by next year 2025.

I continue being a role model daily by figuring out as much necessary information that the public would need so I continue My legacy as a muse and a motivator of the Public. I love all and any good people and I ask that We all learn out calm and cool down techniques so We can live the most magical and loving life. I can't thank this magazine enough for reaching out to Me and getting My story out there. I would like to teach everyone Eternal Life so My Book will be published and available online by 2025 as well. Thank You and Enjoy life everyone.

My biggest dream is to one day have my own mental health and addiction community resource. I have worked in addictions with a diverse population for over 6 years while working on my modeling career to bring awareness to domestic violence survivors addiction recovery and body positivity. My biggest challenges have been my health but no matter what I conquer and overcome every obstacle that is thrown on my way. With having a lived experience in all of these areas it has helped me help others that do not yet have a voice. I have been able to continue my education in social work and law enforcement in order to have the ability to make my dreams come true and to continue serving my community to the best of my ability.

Hello,

My name is Mickey, I own Creative InSight Tattoo, and am an Artist, in Dickinson, North Dakota.

I am 28 years old, and I am a single mother of two children. I grew up watching my oldest sister get tattoos by all of her artist, friends as a child, and I fell in love with it around nine years old. I started tattooing in 2018 and eventually opened my own shop and name in 2019.

My goals for my life, as a tattoo artist is to expand my tattooing career, traveling, and making an impact in people 's lives with my artwork. I believe, that tattooing is a spiritual calling that carries a lot of responsibility and is not meant for everybody. I love what I do and I would never change my career. For me, this industry is a way of living, a passion, a calling, and it's also freedom.

Another goal that I have, is to encourage my women and my men to accept themselves for who they are internally and externally, flaws and all. Learning how to love themselves and not be so hard on themselves or others. Because the world is hard enough as it is. I believe, that the Tattoo Industry is a perfect place to teach others to love themselves, because we work on bodies, on a daily basis and even as tattoo artists, we are all diverse and different whether that is in looks, styles, belief systems. Yet, we somehow can work together. I think that is a big goal is to teach others that through tattooing.

I hope that overtime as my artwork grows, the shop name grows, that I, then, as a single mother can provide even more for my two children and others that I love and hold dear to me.

I would say one of my greatest achievements has been been able to do tattooing, growing in my artwork and as an artist and person, making tattooing my career and being able to make it through it all, the challenges, the highs, the lows, the losses, the gains, and being where I am now, as a female tattoo, artist, and mother. Being able to run my own shop. Impacting peoples lives. Caring for others through my artwork and time with them as they sit in my tattoo chair. In my small community of Dickinson, ND, it has meant so much to me, how much people, have enjoyed and felt cared for and have supported me and my shop, all these years.

Redefining Beauty: My Journey in Fashion and Empowerment Being published in Fashion Illustrated—my very first magazine feature—was a moment I’ll never forget. It wasn’t just an achievement; it was a declaration that my voice, my presence, and my perspective as a plus-size Black woman deserved to be seen and celebrated. That milestone marked the beginning of my mission to redefine beauty standards and inspire others to embrace their uniqueness. For me, fashion is about so much more than clothes—it’s a platform for change, a way to tell stories, and a vehicle for empowerment. I’m passionate about showing the world that beauty is not one-size-fits-all. As a plus-size woman, I’ve faced societal expectations and limiting beliefs about what beauty “should” look like. But I stand as living proof that beauty comes in all shapes, sizes, and shades. It’s not about fitting into someone else’s mold—it’s about loving your body as it is and owning your space unapologetically. Through my platform, I aim to spread love, positivity, and resilience. Life hasn’t always been easy, and I know what it’s like to move through tragedy and come out the other side. I want to be a billboard for those who’ve faced difficult times, showing them that it’s possible to embrace all of who you are and move forward authentically. Looking ahead, I want to continue working in print. While I enjoy the excitement of the runway, it’s in front of the camera where I truly come alive. My goal is to produce content and art that takes my Babes—my followers—on a journey with me. I want to serve as a conduit for body positivity, positive change, reaching your goals, and loving yourself.

Whether it’s through my modeling, storytelling, or connection with my audience, I hope to inspire others to embrace their beauty, set ambitious goals, and pursue life unapologetically. Because when we own who we are and love ourselves fully, we don’t just thrive—we transform. Photographers Credits (If Any): Barry Clark Photography, and John Covington

Roonie

Hello, I am 49 year of Valerie "mzvthemodel" Quinn, after years of dealing with low self-esteem and feeling unworthy I embraced loving myself to the fullest and attended my first model call in January of 2022 and walked in my first fashion in March 2022. I have been fighting battles most of my life from being born premature, to having asthma that led to me being incubated with the machine breathing 100% for six days for me. I am a Domestic Abuse Survivor, I have diabetes, and in May of this year I had a Stroke with bleeding on my brain, but I have still been strong and have not allowed these obstacles to stop me from staying on the path that God has set for me. Since walking in my first fashion show I have walked in many fashion shows in N.C., V.A., and G.A. and I have been published in 8 magazines including 1 International Magazine. My childhood community Coley Acres also did a write up about me in the Coley Acres Gazette. My sincere desire is to be printed in more fashion magazine and catalogs.

As of 2024 I am also an aspiring actress I have appeared in Deadpool Just Another Day: Episode 1 "Chaos is Just Part of the Job". It can be watched on YouTube. I am also part of the cast for the Web Series "AML" which will begin filming in February 2025. I just pray that I can continue to move forward in the modeling and acting community. My one main goal is to be an example to others to let them know that no matter what trials and tribulations they encounter they can still achieve their goals and dreams.

Wang Jun

Hi, I'm Wang Jun. My love for art started at a young age, inspired by my sister, who encouraged me to explore my passion for drawing. During my time in art school, I became captivated by street culture, particularly graffiti, which greatly shaped my artistic perspective. My journey into tattooing began in 2013 when I watched a documentary about this incredible art form. After getting my first tattoo, I was hooked. Within three months, I started learning the craft, and it quickly became my life's calling.

In 2018, I had the honor of serving as a judge at the Shanghai China Tattoo International Tattoo Art Carnival. By 2023, I showcased my work at the TALA & WANG Art and Painting Exhibition in Suzhou. The following year, I served as a judge at the Shanghai China International Tattoo Art Convention and hosted my first solo Personal Art Exhibition in July 2024 in Shanghai. Later that year, I was invited to the The 2nd South China Tattoo Art Exhibition in Fuzhou, China, where I again took on the role of judge.

I am always striving to grow as an artist, refining my craft and deepening my understanding of tattooing. My goal is to merge Western painting techniques with Eastern themes, creating a unique artistic language that bridges these two worlds. I also dream of working internationally, sharing my art and philosophy with a global audience while contributing to the evolution of tattooing as an art form.

When I'm not working, I enjoy listening to soul music—it inspires and relaxes me. I also value time with my family and pets, and I love cooking and hosting gatherings for friends. These moments of creativity and connection bring balance to my life and fuel my passion for my work.
