Theodore Vance Smith IV

Theodore Vance Smith IV is a 9-year-old sensation to watch out for. With only training in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu for just a short 14 months, Theodore has made waves in the BJJ world of competitions. With competing in 14 tournaments in 9 months, Theodore has secured thirty medals, 12 gold, 10 silver, and 8 bronze. With closing out his first year of competition, Theodore has big goals set in his sight for the 2022 year. He pushes himself every day, trying to do and be better for himself and his community. Theodore raises donations for different programs and rescues within his community, with animal rescues having a special place in his heart. But his want to help his community doesn't stop there! Young Theodore discovered his love for the police force at just 6. This dream has grown more robust and detailed as the years have passed. With his eyes set on becoming secret service for the president one day. Theodore also dreams of continuing his Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu journey and making it to his black belt. After moving to his new club, Schell Shock in North Carolina, he fell in love with helping teach the new kids coming in. Realizing his passion for teaching, he wants to one day open a gym as a learning and training center for police, military, and veterans. However, for now he will continue to try and conquer the BJJ world of tournaments with hoping to land a sponsorship to help get him to Pan Kids in this upcoming year. Watch Theodore's journey unfold on his Instagram @the_gilded_owl_bjj and become the next pro, maybe even Olympian!
