My dream is to become a mixed martial arts champion and enter the UFC.

My name is Aaron Gilbody. I got inspired by my father and started Brazilian Jiu jitsu. I am lucky in this sense because I inherited so many things from my dad and he always puts that extra effort to teach me. At the same time, my coach is also helping me a lot. I can't win matches without him. I always want to work hard. My dream is to represent my nation and fulfill my father's dream. It really challenging and would require me to level up every day which I try to do.

There will be lots of challenges along to way but that's what keeps me going and always thrive to be better at what I do in and out of martial arts.

Caden

My name is Caden. I am 12 years old. i am happy to share that I have been given a medal for my amazing performance in jiu jitsu during wrestling media day. I just want to be myself and focus on my game. I am okay with losing but I don't want to fail. I want to keep my attitude right and sail through the difficult times. I am able to do it because of my supportive friends and coach. A big thanks to them as well. I don't mind if I am short someday against some great competitor but I just want to learn from it and not repeat my mistakes.

Meu nome é Samuel Calixto, tenho 6 anos.

Comecei a treinar jiu-jitsu com 2 anos de idade. Lembro que foi onde aprendi a dar minhas primeiras cambalhotas.

Meus pais me colocaram para que pudesse gastar minhas energias, que não são poucas. Mas logo nas primeiras aulas, fui gostando e aprendendo coisas novas, habilidades, disciplina, coordenação motora.

Gostei tanto que já se passaram 4 anos. E de lá para cá, venho me dedicando e aprendendo mais e mais. De 2 anos para cá, comecei a competir.

Começamos em pequenos campeonatos internos, entre academias. Foi muito bom demonstrar o que eu tinha aprendido com outros atletas que eu não conhecia.

Entre acertos e erros, conseguimos algumas medalhas e troféus. E 2 cinturões também.

Esse ano de 2023, foi uma nova etapa, eu e meu mestre Felipe Manhães decidimos me testar em campeonatos grandes. SJJSAF.

Disputei o Pan Americano, o Rio Challenge e o Mundial. Graças a Deus tive um bom desempenho e consegui nas finais 2 finalizações e no último depois de um empate de 2 a 2 fomos para o golden score onde consegui me consagrar campeão.

Minha meta é aprender cada vez mais e evoluir para poder chegar a disputar as competições internacionais, USA, abu dhabi etc.

Sempre evoluindo e aprendendo. OSS

My name is Jonathan Fortin, my teammates call me the road warrior! I've been doing Brazilian jiu-jitsu since I'm 5 years old, bjj as thought me discipline, it's given me an incredible sense of leadership and confidence, I've made many friends and valuable memories. I train 3 to 6 times a week whit sensei Dallas O'Reagan at DOBJJ in Cochrane Alberta in Canada, my team and I compete a lot, we almost always win top 3 kids team. I can proudly say that I've done over 100 tournament fights since I started competing 2 years ago, the more I fight with different kids the more I learn and get better at my art, next year I have a goal of trying out the pan kids in Florida, my goal out there wouldn't be to win but rather see how long I can survive against the worlds very best. When I get bored of training at the bjj gym I switch it up to other hard sports that helps make me stronger like rock climbing, parcours or swimming. I am very happy to have the art of Brazilian jiu-jitsu as a part of my life style.

What began as a boxing gym in 2004 under the name 'Contenders Boxing Studio' expanded to be Contenders Athletic Club in 2023 – bringing the addition of squash & racquetball, and a cardio and weight centre.

Spearheaded by Kevin Reynolds a former professional boxer, Contenders built itself as a centre for community by running group classes and hosting regular events for our members to mingle. Kevin is as involved in the business as can be and teaches classes everyday, plays on our squash box league, and trains clients.

We cater to a wide variety of individuals including families, competitive athletes, a corporate crowd, retirees, and college students to name a few. Our expansive offerings include teams you can join for competition, technique based classes, specialized training camp classes geared to those looking for boot camp style workouts, and personal training options available 1 on 1 or for groups up to 25.

Since the beginning, Contenders has actively been involved with charity and has many events with proceeds going to charity. In the past 2 years donations have been made to the BCSPCA, the Dugout Dropin and Unya Youth.
