Ian Paul Rengel Montero

My name is: Ian Paul Rengel Montero

Venezuelan

I am: 11 years old, I like to study, run, create, play drums, sing, and have fun with my friends...

Skateboarding has become an exciting game for me, where it allows me to share experiences with other skaters, grow and be the best skater of my age, in my country.

Knowing other parks inside and outside Venezuela is one of my goals, so I can feel the magic of practicing vertical, and bowling.

From a very young age, although there was no category for my age, they took me into account when I skated, they gave me caps and shirts, until now we have managed to compete with other boys and stay on the podium. Great

I do skateboarding for fun and it's one of my biggest passions. I have only been skating for 1 year and I have loved every bit of it! My biggest dream for 2022 is to conquer the 14 foot monster vert ramp in Sydney. I never been there but I have always wanted too and especially drop in it! I have lots of goals in skating but the one I have been trying to perfect lately is my backside late grabs. I want to be able to get high over coping and feel the rush of adrenaline and the thrill of flying. I'm very determined to get it because failing, falling and struggling is apart of the fun but I know I will get it!! I am really proud of myself as one of my latest big achievements was dropping into the 12ft ramp at Bateau Bay Skatepark! I feel that I have a lot of success in regards to improving my skills and expanding in all my tricks. What I'm most proud of and what has stood out for me is probably how far I have come in skating in just one year and how much I have progressed in such a short time. There is gonna be much more to come in 2022!

My name is Izar Ormazabal, I am 9 years old.

I started longboarding at the age of 5 and soon after I switched to ramp skating.

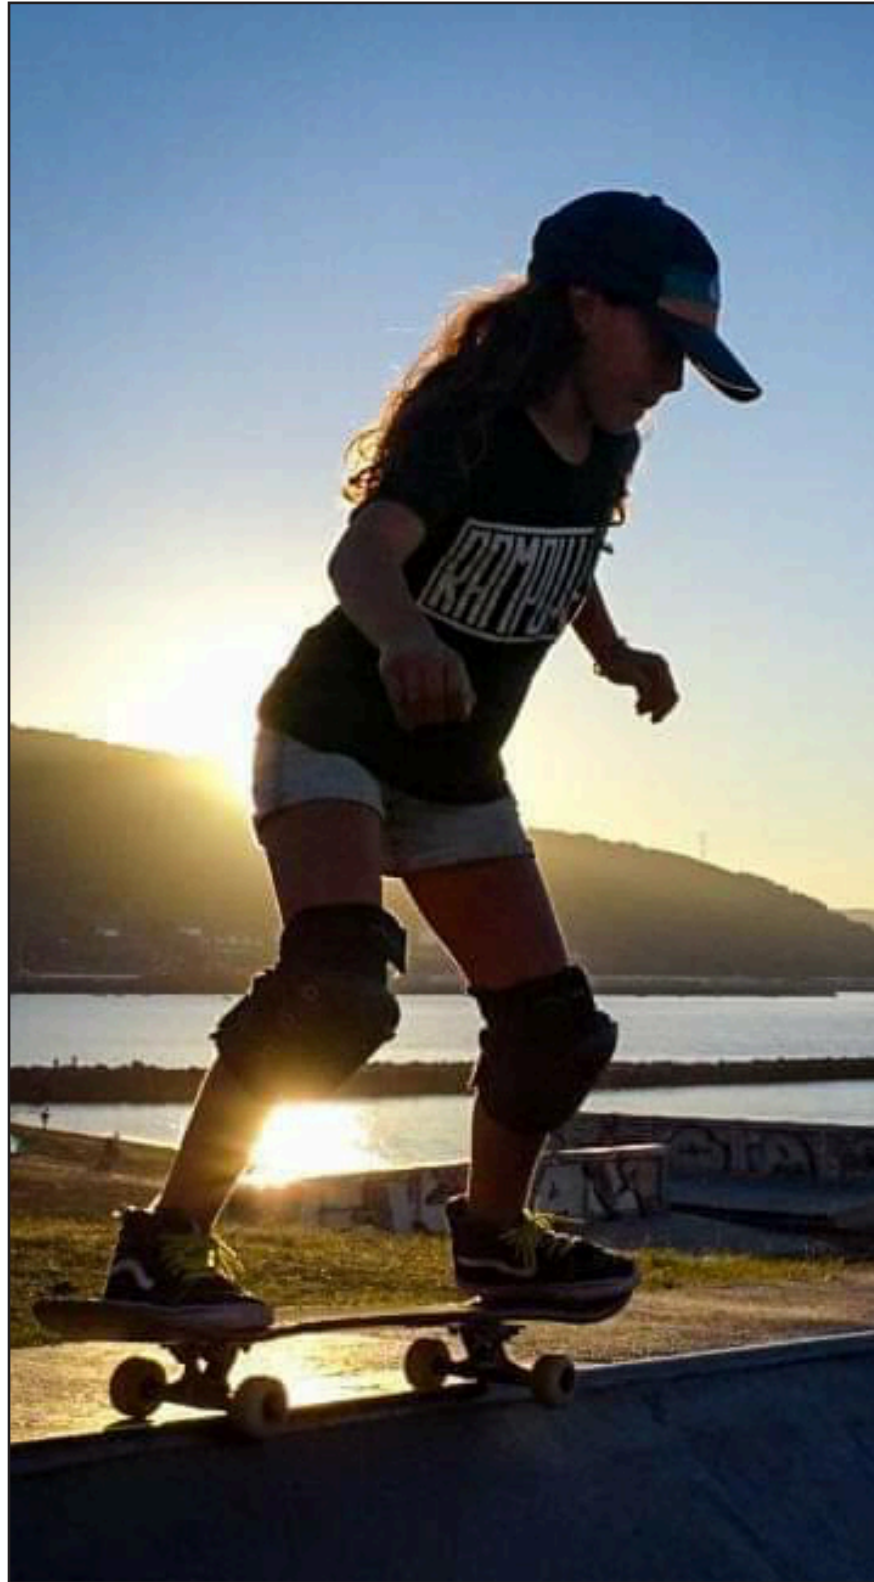

I love skating with my friends and traveling with the van to new places discovering skateparks, going to contest or events and meeting new friends.

I am inspired by creative skaters like Andy Anderson or Bryce Wettstein and I want to one day skate like them.

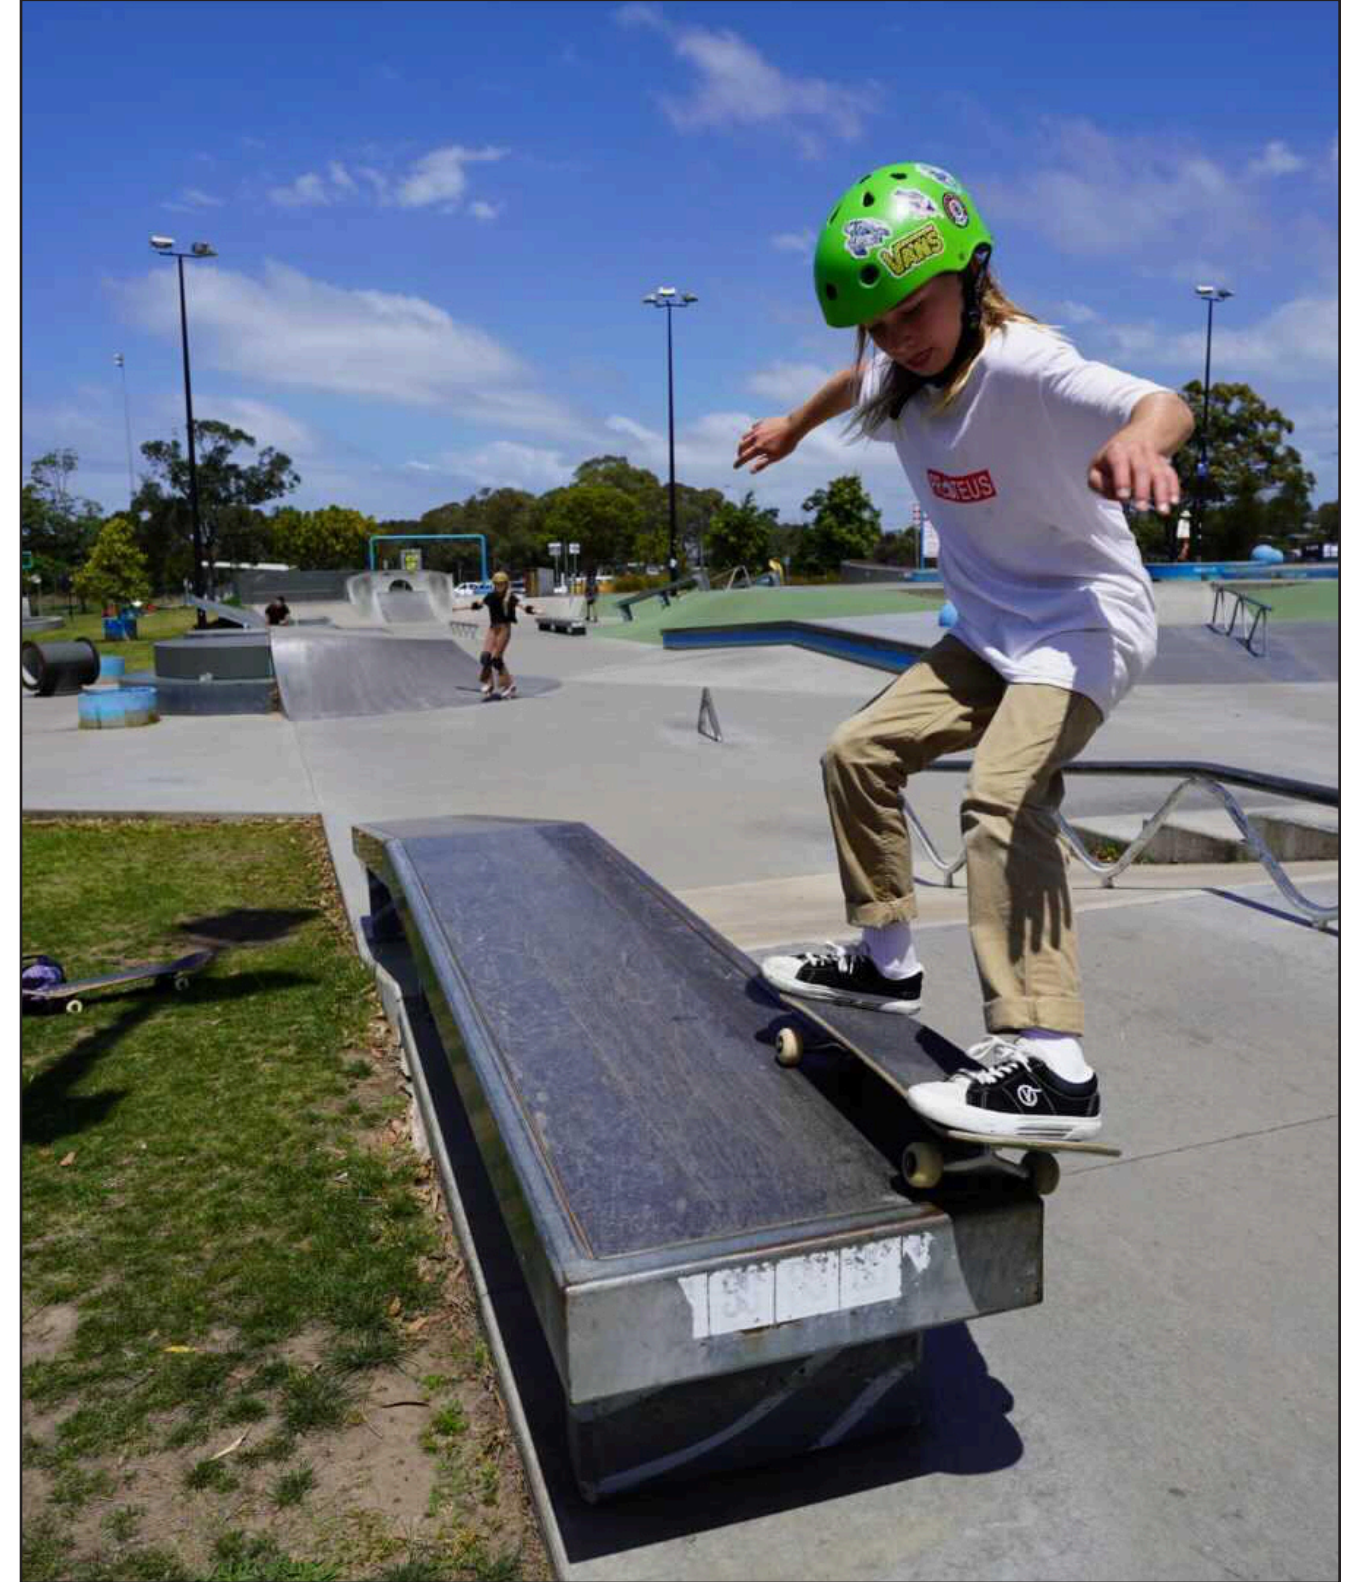

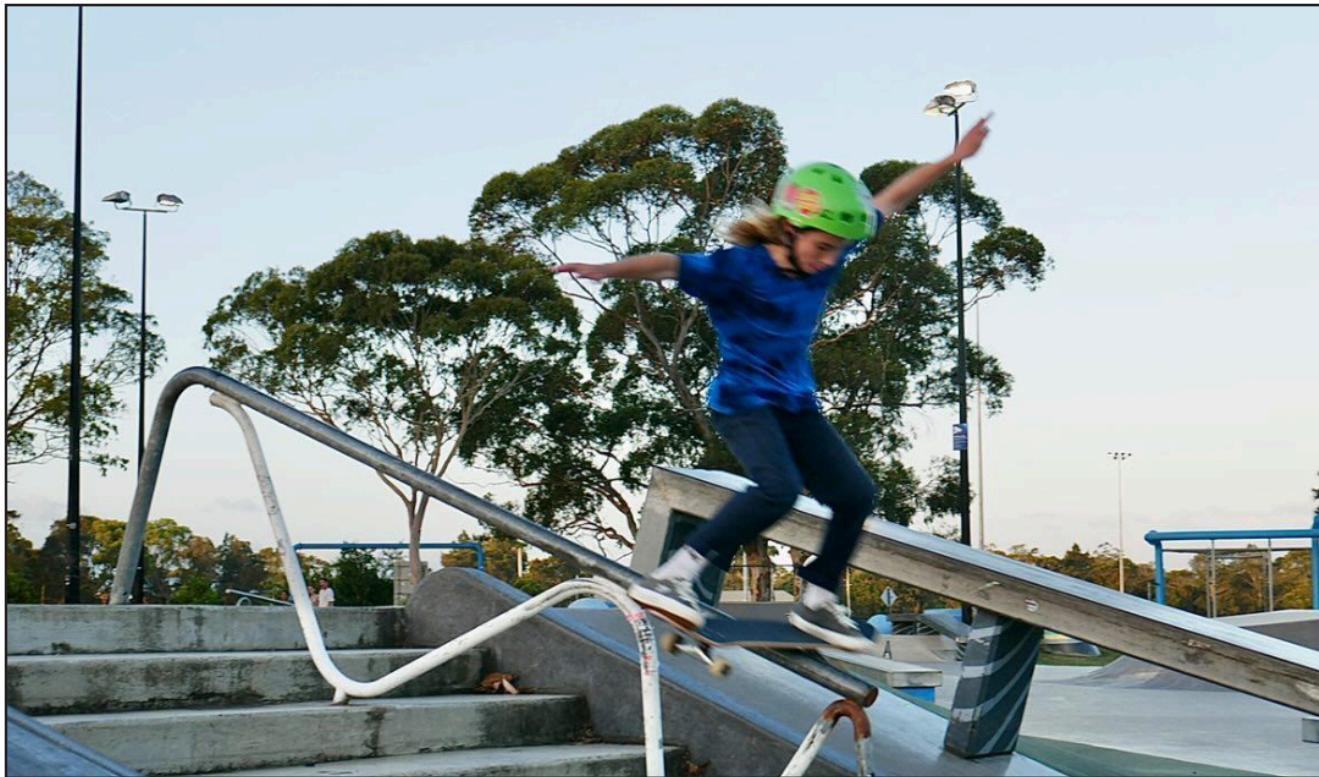

I love skateboarding so much! It's amazing and learning new tricks is the biggest stoke! I love skateboarding with my friends at my local park. Some of my biggest achievements in skateboarding are when I pop shuvied the 7 stair, when I ollied a massive 10 stair, and when I boardslid the 7 stair handrail.

My next biggest goal in skateboarding has to be the humongous spiral, curved handrail in Chatswood, Sydney. I got extremely close to landing it! I tried for over an hour. It was the biggest battle I have ever had in skateboarding and I badly wanted to land it! I was so close to landing it but, unfortunately I had no wax and the rail was quite sticky on the end. It was pretty hard trying to get around the curve of the rail. On one of my last attempts, I wasn't quite lucky. I popped up onto the handrail and slipped back, hitting my balls on the rail pretty hard. That was the end of the session for me but, I'm DEFINITELY GOING BACK to land it! I would be so happy to make it on Thrasher Magazine or Slam Skateboarding Magazine in the future!

I would love to make it to the Olympics and become a pro that's definitely a big dream
