Luna has been modeling since the mid 80's. She started out as a Hustler Beaver Hunt Girl, which led to a position at one of Larry Flynt's magazines, Busty Beauties.

Active on the music scene, Luna was a muse and rock groupie, performed on stage in Chicago with Mortii at The Expo of The Extreme and caught the eye of filmmaker Bill Zebub. She appeared in his publications and made a cameo in his film Assmonster:The Making of a Horror Movie.

But Luna's real passion is modeling-in print or in person. She posed for art galleries and live classes in South Florida for years.

"It was challenging to come up with a new pose every 5 minutes that would satisfy every person in the room. Your head had to be in the game. After class, someone would usually ask me if I was ashamed to stand nude in front of all of those people.The answer was no. That was the situation where I felt totally free.

What is next for Luna? She is looking to collaborate with other models or creators. One is never to old to learn new tricks.

I've been a model for quite some time and I've achieved many things. My biggest achievement has been a feature on the billboards in New York. I've traveled many places making me more independent and I've been featured in many magazines. I would love to get on as many front cover magazines as possible

I have always dreamed of becoming a great model. I love to model I enjoy modeling. Being a model is a huge accomplishment for me

My goals in my modeling life is to achieve greatly and make it into every magazine type u can think of, turning my modeling into a career one day. One of my biggest things I love doing is once I get new ink, I love to show it off and make a story out of my tattoos through my modeling, I have come across many challenges.

One thing, I tell myself about challenges "There no challenge that I can't handle". As long as u do your best and practice, the better you'll feel accomplished with the challenges that come your way each time.

I have always wanted to be a model since I was a little girl. I love to model and I really enjoy it. I want to be a great model like the playboy models. I have been told all my life I would never be good enough that I would need to have surgery to get rid of stretch marks and such. I have over come alot of verbal abuse and started believing in myself and that Noone can keep me from my dreams except foe myself.
